Unification Study Meetings Set

Clergymen Back Libeled Colleague

An Orinda Episcopal minister, attacked in several anonymous letters for his membership in the Orinda Council for Civic Unity and other liberal affiliations, yesterday received strong support from fellow churchmen in the area and throughout the state.

Rev. G. Corwin Calavan of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church was charged with being "soft" on communism, and criticized for his membership in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in letters distributed by mail to his parishioners.

A letter, which began, "Dear Prudence," and signed "Your Cousin, Hortense," also criticized Rev. Calavan for his membership in the Committee for Justice for Morton Sobel. This group is seeking legal review of the conviction of an atom spy on technical grounds.

ONE LETTER called the Orinda Council for Civic Unity a "community front" which it said is "fomenting racial strife."

Also criticized was San Francisco Episcopal Bishop James Pike for his stated views on the virgin birth of Jesus Christ and the Episcopal Church for its membership in the National Council of Churches.

Nine ministers of this area immediately issued a statement deploring ". . . the innuendo of communism as well as the cowardice demonstrated in this form of attack."

And unanimous support for Rev. Calavan and a statement clarifying the churches' stand in the matter was resolved by priests and bishops who have convened at Healdsburg.

A CONFERENCE of clergy of the Episcopal Diocese of California is being held at the diocese's Rancho Del Obispo.

Said the resolution of some 98 churchmen: ". . . We deplore the anonymous unwarranted and false attacks made upon a fellow priest, the Rev. C. Corwin Calavan, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Orinda.

"Our action is taken because of our awareness of the inherent dangers created by such unprincipled attacks.

The resolution dwelt upon the need of churchmen and citizens to recognize the communist danger, emphasizing that Episcopal churchmen are not naive in their attitude towards communism.

IT URGED parishioners to ". . . examine carefully charges of disloyalty and subversion brought by extremist groups, and the oversimplified appraisal of our situation . . . lest fears and suspicion destroy honest public debate and silence the expression of Christian faith in human affairs."

It continued, ". . . Marxist communism is a false, atheistic religion, hostile to man's fullest freedom, destroying the self-determination of people, intent on world domination . . .

". . . It is the social duty of the church to oppose the challenge of the Marxian theory . . ."

The statement by the local ministers quoted Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover who warned against the dangers of "self-appointed vigilantes . . . in the name of anti-communism . . . playing into communist hands."

THE STATEMENT was signed by Rev. Calavan himself and also Reverends Chauncey Blossom, Melvin Brown, John Dodson, Darwin Mann, William Frankhuizen, Albert Hidy, Jr., Arthur L. Hobard, Carl Thomas and Ronald White.

Not naming Rev. Calavan in their statement, the local ministers referred to the ". . . scurrilous anonymous attack."

They quoted Hoover as saying in a magazine article, ". . . They (communists) know that in the present climate of public opinion having Americans believe they have infiltrated the churches is almost as effective in sowing discord and dissension as an actual infiltration might have been . . ."

The ministers added, "We therefore call upon the people of our community to beware of those who sow seeds of suspicion and fear."

REVEREND Calahan has been at St. Stephen's since September, 1959.

Before leaving for the conference in Healdsburg, he commented that the anonymous letters seemed to have had a unifying effect on his congregation, rather than the reverse.

Orinda Trustees Reject Annex Proposal

Annexation of 375 acres adjacent to the Orinda Union School District to said district was given a blunt, if polite "No" at Monday night's meeting of the Orinda Union School District Board of Trustees at Pine Grove School.

Trustees at first appeared willing to take the matter under consideration, but when pressed for an answer by Frank Draeger, representing the principals of proposed Tract 2991, the trustees unanimously agreed to deny the request.

The property in question involves 375 acres on which the proponents hope to establish 299 lots. Geographically it is adjacent to Orinda School District boundaries, with nearest access from an extension of Lombardy Lane.

HOWEVER, LEGALLY, the property is now within the Martinez School District boundaries, even though mountainous terrain and the Briones Dam project cut it off from easy access to Martinez district schools.

The property also touches the Lafayette School District territory at its eastern boundary. An area close to this boundary was mentioned by Draeger as a possible school site if the principals were willing to donate same to a school district.

HOWEVER, he also stated that the logical development of the land because of utilities, access, sewer and contour would begin at the westerly boundary, a school at the easterly boundary would be impractical.

Draeger described the development as an "expensive one." Lots alone would be priced at $10,000 to $18,000 due to the cost of site development. One of the big expenses could be a sewer line that would have to run all the way to Camino Pablo, or San Pablo Dam Road.

Rezoning applications for the property are due to come before the county the first or second week of November. The upper section of the property south of the dam project is scheduled for a minimum of an acre per lot. The southerly portion is requested to be rezoned for half acre lots.

Apartments Win County Approval

Approval was granted J. R. Lucas to proceed with plans to construct a three-story apartment building on Brookwood Road near Moraga Way by the Contra Costa County Board of Adjustment, meeting Wednesday in Martinez.

Certain conditions accompanied the approval.

No building permit will be issued until plans are approved by the Flood Control District and the Department of Public Works. Other conditions were of a minor nature.

The building planned, although three stories high, does not exceed the 35-foot limitation set by the building code.

Unless further appeals are filed, final permission will be granted October 16.

Civic Unity Group Hears Father Muse

Father Grant Muse of the Church of the Good Shepherd in Berkeley recently told of his experiences as a Freedom Rider in Mississippi at a meeting of the Orinda Council for Civic Unity at St. Stephen's Church.

With Father Muse was Rabbi Sydney Axelrod, president of the Northern California Board of Rabbis, who spoke of his interview with Attorney General Robert Kennedy concerning these demonstrations in the Deep South.

Presently Father Muse and 288 other Freedom Riders are facing jury trials in Mississippi. It is reportedly the intention of CORE to fight these cases through the Mississippi courts, and on to the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary.

In his address, the priest pointed out the urgent need for funds to carry out this plan.

All interested donors may mail checks to Bay Area Council for Freedom Riders in care of Rev. Grant Muse, 1823 9th Street, Berkeley, California.

Information for those interested in making a sizeable loan may be obtained at the same address.

Indian Summer In Orinda!

Supervisors Declare 'Pop Warner Day' October 15

October 15 has been officially declared as Pop Warner Day in Contra Costa County by the county Board of Supervisors.

Complete with a pancake breakfast, football game and queen's cononation, Pop Warner Day will honor the four teams of the Pop Warner League composed of boys from Martinez, West Contra Costa, Oakland and the area compassing Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda and Moraga.

THE PANCAKE breakfast, sponsored by the Pop Warner Booster's Club (parents of boys in the league), will be the kick-off for the big day, and for a fund raising campaign.

Pancakes will be served to the public and to boys and their families on the parking lot beside Black's market in Orinda The charge of 50 cents per person will be donated to the support of the Pop Warner League. from 8 to 11 a.m. on October 15. Black's market provides the ingredients at cost to the Booster's Club, whose members prepare and serve the pancake feast.

After the pancake breakfast, at 1:30 p.m. there will be a football game at Miramonte High School between the La Morinda Thunderbirds and the Oakland Team.

HIGHLIGHT of the half-time activities will be the crowning of "Miss Football of Contra Costa County." The four contestants are Nancy Hart of I. V. Intermediate School, Sandy Robinson, Pine Grove School, Sheri Colburn, Acalanes High School and Cathy Adams, Miramonte High school.

The winner will determined by the number of tickets purchased in her name.

Trustees, Officials To Study Alternatives

Trustees of the Orinda Union School District have scheduled a meeting of the board for October 16 to discuss the three alternatives of the unification problem.

Gordon Ainsworth, chairman of the Orinda board, asked Joseph Sheaff, district superintendent to present the recommendations and consensus of the administration at this meeting. The group will meet at the Pine Grove School at 7:30 p.m.

Following this meeting an adjourned meeting will be called for either October 18 or 19. The Orinda board plans to invite the trustees of the Canyon, Moraga, Lafayette and Walnut Creek boards to join them at this meeting.

AINSWORTH told the trustees at a regular meeting of the board Monday night that he felt the board should take the responsibility of getting the facts of unification to the people in sufficient time that the people's opinion could be presented November 30 at the County Committee on School District Reorganization meeting on unification.

Ainsworth told the Orinda trustees that he felt it was the responsibility of the board to interpret the Odell report to the public. However, in addition to a condensed version of the Odell report favoring horizontal unification (total unifying of area school districts) Ainsworth expressed the opinion that the board should explain vertical unification and the ramifications of remaining "status quo."

THE BOARD AGREED that after meeting October 16 they should make themselves available for appearances at Parent Club meetings to inform and assist in answering questions regarding the unification problem.

In other business the board denied a request that Tract 2991 be included in the Orinda School District. (See saparate story).

They also heard a report from Don Mahler regarding a special class for the physically handicapped. Mahler told of pilot courses in Los Angeles and San Mateo and of the existing need in this imminent area for the neurologically handicapped child.

MAHLER explained that this type child did not fit in the category of the emotionally disturbed or mentally retarded. Legislation, he said, that would have provided funds for the care of these children, was balked because it had been tied in with legislation for the emotionally disturbed.

Mahler is seeking to get an interpretation from the District Attorney regarding the laws that pertain to special education funds. The Orinda trustees were receptive to the problem, but withheld action until Mahler can report whether or not some funds from the county would be available to support such a class.

Casey IS a Nice Guy--- He Hires Cookie, Hemus

Casey Stengel, the old wizard of the New York Yankees, has returned to baseball again and has given a pair of fellow ex-managers new jobs.

Casey, who was "retired" from the Yankees because of his age, announced this week that Harry (Cookie) Lavagetto of Orinda and Solly Hemus will be two of his coaches for the new National League team, the New York Mets.

Both Lavagetto and Hemus got the axe this year from their respective clubs.

The Minnesota Twins gave Cookie the heave-ho and St. Louis did the same thing to Hemus. Both firings came midway through the season.

As the Met coach, Lavagetto will rejoin Casey Stengel, his manager when he was with the Oakland Acorns in the Pacific Coast League.

ALSO, he will be back in New York, where he gained fame with the Brooklyn Dodgers in the 1940s.

Stengel made the announcement of the appointments just three days after he came out of his one-year "retirement."

The ex-Yankee manager indicated he will add other discharged members of the managers' union to his staff soon.

In an interview this week, he said, "When you see so many managers are let loose, discharged or retired, it's a very difficult thing to say who are going to be the four coaches and I can't hire them all."

Stories circulated that Casey might just be setting up the organization and would step aside for Cookie at a later date.

HOHEVER, Cookie called the story "somebody's pipe dream."

Lavagetto said he was looking forward to working for "Ol Case."

In fact, work started right away.

Lavagetto, Hemus and Stengel are in New York studying a list of National League players which has been submitted by the other clubs.

The Mets will draw from this list to stock their new club.

Natalie Hartanov Pledges Sorority

Natalie Hartanou, daughter of A. S. Hartanou, 151 Camino Don Miguel, has pledged Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Sun Will Hold Meeting on Shoplifting

Got shoplifting problems in your store?

Would your sales staff—and you, too—be interested in seeing a movie and a demonstration on shoplifter's techniques, and some tips on the handling of juvenile shoplifters?

The Sun will sponsor a clinic designed to help in the prevention of shoplifting Wednesday, October 18, at 8 a.m. at the second floor training room at Capwell's, Walnut Creek.

You can enter Capwell's through the employee entrance on the side by the Crocker-Anglo bank.

Police Chief Leigh Brilliant of Walnut Creek will give a short talk and show the movie.

Jack Francis, investigator for the district attorney, will demonstrate the techniques of shoplifters and will discuss the handling of juveniles. He will also explain what you can legally do.

R. J. Holcomb, juvenile officer for the Walnut Creek police department, will be available to answer your questions, as will Brilliant and Francis.

The program will last one hour.

Insurance Duplication?

No "duplication" is involved where Contra Costa County's 1961-62 insurance program was awarded to the firm of Cross and Doyle largely on the basis of "special district" coverage, which includes fire districts and other organizations.

This was County Administrator J. P. McBrien's statement to the County Board of Supervisors last week, in reply to criticism leveled by the County Association of Insurance Agents.

McBrien said that the insurance committee's choice of the Doyle firm was based on a high level of service in the past, and more extensive coverage, including special district coverage not offered in the association's bid.

Doyle's basic bid of $91,372 was somewhat higher than the association's bid. But the firm's special district coverage was offered for $20,927, compared to its similar coverage last year costing $27,590.

Later, Zach Montgomery, president of the County Fire Commisioner's Association, told the supervisors that many fire districts under county control had gone ahead and obtained their own insurance, and this would amount to "duplication" with the same thing being paid for twice.

McBrien told the supervisors, ". . . The county has standardized coverage in order to provide more adequate protection.

"There will be no duplication of coverage because districts will submit their policies to Cross and Doyle for credit.

"The insurance carrier will allow credit for insurance contracts in force, and will provide excess insurance over the limits provided in these contracts in order to bring coverage up to the standards specified by the board of supervisors."

McBrien continued, ". . . No insurance contract entered into prior to July 1 need be canceled.

"Policies issued subsequent to July 1 can be canceled at no charge to the districts as insurance carriers are receptive to this arrangement where proof is submitted of superior coverage afforded by another company for the same period.

"Cooperation of the agent or broker is needed for flat cancellation. If this cannot be done in any case, then the procedure for policies issued prior to July 1 may be followed if it is more economical to do so.

"It can be readily seen that no duplication of insurance will exist under the present program.

"As to many fire districts renewing their policies on July 1, thereby causing so-called duplication and confusion, please note that the schedule prepared by the county auditor-controller shows that there are only three districts in this category.

"The remainder are to be renewed during the year, with the majority of the district policies expiring approximately at the end of the 1961 calendar year."

McBrien enlarged on his earlier denial of insurance association claims that its alternate plan would save the county $50,000 over a period of three years.

He said, ". . . It must be assumed that the association is referring to the retrospective plan submitted.

"If this assumption is correct, then the statement is incorrect in that it should read that the county might save $50,000 on a projected three year period as premiums would be based on loss experience.

"It should be pointed out that adoption of the alternative plan of the association could conversely result in an additional premium charge of $50,000 over a projected three-year period.

"Since the county is increasingly becoming subject to litigation, the possibility of an unfavorable loss experience which might require a substantial premium increase is greatly enhanced.

"The retrospective plan has been made the subject of further study, as pointed out in the report of the insurance committee.

"Districts under the control of the board of supervisors now have standardized coverage with broader and higher limits achieved at reduced premiums under the new insurance program."

McBrien added, "The misleading criticism of this insurance program is most disconcerting.

"From some of the assertions made it would appear that the county is refusing a gratuity whereas as a matter of actual fact, the criticism is emanating from persons who are out to make money—just like other agencies which render service to the county."

LEGAL NOTICE

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and ex-officio clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Hall of Records, City of Martinez, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 17th day of October, 1961, at the hour of 10:30 o'clock a.m. for the purchase of bonds of Acalanes Union High School District, of Contra Costa County, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $600,000, 1961 School Bonds, Series B. consisting of 600 bonds of the denomination of $1,000 each, numbered B-1 to B-600 inclusive. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $3,900,000, of which $850,000, designated Series A, have heretofore been issued and $850,000 are now outstanding;

(The remaining $2,450,000 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to June 1, 1962.)

DATE: All of said bonds are dated November 1, 1961.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually for the first year on November 1, 1962, and semi-annually thereafter on May 1st and November 1st in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate or rates stated in the bid must be in multiples of 1/8 or 1/20 of one per cent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

$30,000 principal amount of bonds of Series B shall mature and be payable on November 1st in each of the years 1962 to 1981, both inclusive.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States, at the office of the County Treasurer of said County.

EXECUTION AND REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said District. Said bonds will be executed by the manual signature of at least one official authorized to execute the bonds. Said bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said District on February 14, 1961 and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said District, and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said District, subject to taxation by said District (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe, Attorneys at Law, 405 Montgomery St., San Francisco 4, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the District would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale, but not prior to the date of the bonds.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County, and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of Acalanes Union High School District, of Contra Costa County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $30,000, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said District from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the District on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the District. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said District, or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Dated: September 19, 1961.

W. T. PAASCH,
County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, State of California.

Just Some Of Those Things . . .

A RUEFUL & sad reflection on our current way of life is the Country Cotillion starting its season minus some of the little maidens who would like to have participated but were left out in the cold because of barely tardy-postmarked check returns. Invites to the dances that take place at Pine Grove auditorium every season are sent out in the Spring What a lot of people don't know is that out of 400, only 100 boys and 90 girls are accepted, on a first-come, first checks-in basis which puts some of the parents in the rat-race role of rushing to the Post Office as soon as the mailman delivers the formal invites.

FOR THE COTILLION which is supposedly the epitome of manners & little niceties & run by people of the same, this is a heck of a way to start—W/disappointed daughters, upset mamas who got to the post office as fast as humanly possible & seventh graders sounding like sorority season at college w/ridiculous "Did you get in?" & "Did you make it" chatterings, the latter certainly not THEIR fault.

My own feelings shared by many mothers, is that if this function cannot accommodate ALL those invited who accept, then it should do a quick demise. Or resort to some better manners & good taste out of which the whole idea was born.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN: In Ogden's, Millie Cutting, golfing gal, cutting a sporty swath in camelhair shorts, her 4-H riding gal daughter, Sydney, trying on frontier jeans . . . Rich & Bob Mowdy, industrious lads, spending all of a Sat. pruning the hedge at their home & doing a Very Trim job!

The entire Walt Jameson family out front casing the attributes of their new car, "a jalopy," June calls it, which the lucky lads will have the fun of tinkering with.

MARTY Weiner sailing by on his splendiferous new bike won in the recent SUN subscription contest . . . Young-timer George Brockhurst out for his Harry Truman stroll to the Village . . . he could out-walk some of our weak-kneed Young Men who hitch rides JUST to travel a distance of two or three blocks. Do these boys ever realize how much trouble it is to stop the car, juggle the groceries & the baby & other car contents & then have them tell you 50 yards hence, "You can let us off here." Gladly, boys, but never again!

STASHING peanut butter into her grocery cart, Win Neighbor out morning-marketing . . . Her industrious children summer-working at Tahoe "visited" mother at her Squaw Valley summer place checking in regularly to fill up on the same (peanut butter) after their high living diet at sundry resort spots where they labored the summer away, board & room included.

Together w/trumpeteer friend Mario Guarneri, Jeff Neighbor (who's now at Occidental) slapped his bass fiddle w/Dick Foy's ork at the Tahoe Tavern . . . Dghtr. Nelle, now at Fresno State, filled her piggy bank doing chambermaid chores at a nrby, motel & 15-yr old Fred, a Miramontean, did chef's helper duties at Tahoe Tavern, too.

BROWSING the toy counters at Sprouse-Ritzy was Bill Rose, searching out a gift for his son who was in the hospital recovering a surgery .' . . Jane Rose out in the car, had other problems, too . . . pretty dghtr. Peggy Rose home in traction from an ailing back.

In Lucky's, Lombardy member Cay Snover shopping for lunchbox items for the next day's DeYoung Museum Tour benefit by Lombardy Branch for Children's Hospital . . . She was picking out the most perfect pears & checking the ingredients for the Herb Chicken which would go into the picnic luncheon to be taken between Museum touring on the greens at Golden Gate Park.

MR. & MRS. . . . Faye & Hoppy Hopkins returning home from a day in Sac., they w/the news that Hoppy may move his Stanley Home Products office to Monterey where they'll also make their new home . . . Dghtr. Judy is down at Santa Barbara w/the little car brought back from Europe for her by Joe & Jean Downs.

Do Shirley & Sam Ballard have Mr. & Mrs. or His & Hers desks and phones? The Orinda couple have joined the real estate ranks of Ross & Knight.

Some Vital Statistix . . .

THE STORK LINE: The Dick Breuners got themselves a Boy, their FIRST! & Pat & Don Doten are counting four blessings now w/the Sept. 5 arrival of little Mary Jane (love that solid old-fashioned name!) & now it's two boys, two girls for them, what more? Justin Alden Gardner is the distinguished moniker for the new man in the Ollie Gardner's home.

IT HAPPENS EVERY YEAR, the sultry Indian Summer weather when the pools are about to close, so last Sunday who else but Phyllis Simon out w/a petition & hooray, pool remains open as long as weather lasts. The Bob Milligans, Peg Winters, Sig & Mims Groennings & son Sven, Pat Fearey & Tracy some of the die-hards that were having what they thought might be their last dip of the season late Sunday.

"There's Nothing Wrong w/Teenagers" is Miramonte Parents' Club pres. Dr. William Hilger's subject for his talk Mon., Oct. 16, 12:45 in Miramonte's teachers' cafeteria. Everyone invited.

AH, the ladies! Laurie Patterson, juest like the rest of us, looking excitedly for her lost car keys . . . Sun dresses & bare feet around town; Miramonte boys sporting giddy shorts & bright bermudas in the Indian Summer heat-treat . . . Diane Tesman turning a cartwheel in the aisles as she stopped w/Mother Marge.

Joe & Lucille Sheaff still beaming from a visit w/their new granddaughter in Oakland . . . Barbara Williams to wed Walter Irving in Reno, Oct. 20th & being feted w/showers by friends . . . Doris Scott to walk down the aisle, too . . . Ron & Mary Fitzgerald exptg. their 2nd child, will make the Ray Devins & Bud Fitzgeralds Grandparents AGAIN!

COUNTRY CLOTHESLINE: Little Lisa Adams looking Fresh As a Daisy in a white pique trapeze dress—down its front a long green-stemmed pert daisy applique & embroidered thereon—"Fresh As A — "

Thelma Harney fetching & feminine in a favorite buy from Imports By Haz'l, an off-white Mexican blouse, embroidered at decollete neckline & w/flounced feminine sleeves topping a white crash-cotton skirt. The pretty embroidered Batas at Haz'l's, by the way, are half the price of the same as Gump's. . . .

Talking to someone like a Dutch Uncle was genial Jack Barron over the Dutch Door at realtors Peretti in the Village . . . & darn it, that new sign looks like one for a drive-in movie.

A RE-ESTABLISHED bus stop on Via Farallon was completed recently by the county public works department. The shoulder of the road was widened as a safety factor for children waiting for the bus and to provide space for the bus to pull to the side. The youngsters are the children of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McNeil.

Has County Changed Its Policy Midstream?

(Ed. Note: The following statement was released this week to The Sun by Jerome Donchin, M.D. of 8 Tumbling Brook Road. Dr. Donchin with many other residents in the El Toyonal, Via Farallon area have long been concerned with the safety of children on the winding, twisting roads, difficult for even specially made school buses to negotiate.)

Here is Dr. Donchin's statement:

"CITIZENS of Contra Costa County are entitled to hear what this writer hopes is a definite change in policy by the Contra Costa County Public Works Department regarding safety of school children.

"Heretofore, the public works department has consistently held to the policy that road improvements would not be authorized to benefit any segment of vehicle or pedestrian traffic; that in a sense, the school bus was to be considered in the same light as a milk wagon.

"Many bus drivers did not and still do not agree with such a policy when they see the hazards to our children when even specially purchased small school buses cannot negotiate certain county roads without straddling the white line.

"Within the past few weeks, however, it was found that the public works department had authorized widening and did widen a section of Via Farallon in order to establish a safe bus stop.

"UPON questioning a responsible member of the public works department, this writer was told that there was a change of policy regarding school bus stops.

"If there is truly a change of policy, the county is to be commended for it but we would also like a public statement regarding this change. This precedent is extremely important in the light of serious school bus hazards that exist.

"Having observed for more than a year a citizen's committee in constant contact with county officials in regard to improved roads for buses and knowing of the county's negative answers to this committee, it is interesting to note this change of policy is a chance discovery.

"This writer feels this precedence important enough to request a public statement from Victor Sauer, director of public works, regarding this policy."

School District Requested Via Farallon Stop

"Regarding bus stops in general, we don't build them per se," commented Vic Sauer, director of public works, Contra Costa County as he referred to a statement regarding a "change in county road improvement policy" made by Jerome Donchin M.D. (See separate story.)

Sauer continued that the broad problem goes back to the necessity of widening shoulders on certain roads where the right-of-way exists and it is essential for pedestrian and vehicle traffic.

"It is both lawful and legal for us to do this," he added. "We have a serious problem in the county where the population is growing faster than the roads and sidewalks to accommodate them."

The work done at Via Farallon, according to Sauer, was accomplished because of a direct request from the school district.

Sauer said that funds are available for more work of this type in the area of concern to those who must travel on El Toyonal and adjoining roads. "We have done some work already, and plan to continue," he added.

"In some instances we are waiting for concurrence, rights of entry and such matters, but primarily we are waiting for the people involved to reach an agreement as to what they want done first and where.

"When the new road committee decides on priorities and what they want done in the area and so informs the public works department, we will be glad to cooperate," Sauer continued.

Students from the entire area may sign up now. Some 30 juniors and seniors will be accepted. Any qualified high school student may apply. Dave Ogden photo.

Plan Now for Shelters Says Disaster Director

Top priority would be given Contra Costa County in receiving state funds for school bomb shelters, Will H. Perry, Jr., predicted to county school administrators Tuesday, meeting in the Walnut Creek Recreation Center.

HE EMPHASIZED the need for planning these shelters now.

Basing his prediction on a study of state aid for shelter legislation proposed at a budget session of the California legislature in the spring, Perry said it is his impression that areas expected to receive low damage in a nuclear attack, such as Contra Costa County, would have high priority in getting state funds for school shelter construction.

It was learned that the state, not the school districts, would be responsible for providing funds for shelters if the proposed legislation is adopted. For a buried quonset hut type that could house 100 people, Perry predicted 100 per cent financing by the state.

EARLIER this week Perry chided officials for tardiness in planning for fallout protection in an address to mayors and city managers of Contra Costa County meeting in San Pablo.

More sirens and more shelters are needed, he said, and the sooner the better.

According to Perry, cities and school districts must share in responsibility for providing fallout shelters and warning devices.

He estimates that the county needs 300 sirens. It now has 25.

REMINDING his audience that shelters are of no value without adequate warning signals, he said that from the time of warning, all shelters should be within 10 to 15 minutes walking distance from home.

HE RECOMMENDED shelters similar to the experimental one at Parks Air Force Base, which is, in essence, a quonset hut buried underground, with at least three feet of earth over the roof.

Emphasizing the need for protection of school children, he suggested that such shelters be put on existing school sites now, and incorporated into plans for new schools.

It was suggested also, that new schools might be planned with multipurpose rooms underground.

In areas too far from schools, but with many people, a cul de sac or street could be dug up and a shelter installed. The street could then be repaved.

Individual families living in rural areas would have to provide their own shelters.

OFFERING a general plan of action, the director suggested that financing of the shelters could be provided by assessment districts, by general bonds or by an increased tax rate.

He recommended that an alternate government with regard to both personnel and location be set up in the event of an emergency, and that microfilmed records be stored in a blast-proof place. All officials, both active and alternates, should be attack.

Also, he recommended that public buildings be surveyed as possible shelter areas.

Provision should be made for utilities and the basic necessities if present facilities and supplies are cut off.

Estimated cost of such a plan he estimated at about $25 per person.

Reducing Machine Goes Bye, Bye

Mrs. Charles Pendleton of 662 Wild Cat Canyon Road, Berkeley, sold her reducing machine with attachments with a want ad in The Sun.

Joan Meredith of 75 Scenic Drive, Orinda, sold her 1955 Ford convertible car with a want ad in The Sun.

A. C. McGrete of 301 Hookston Road, Pleasant Hill, sold his 16-foot house trailer with butane equipment with a Sun want ad.

Mrs. J. Krause of 2868 Larkey Lane, Walnut Creek, sold her chrome dinette set, with chairs and extension with a Sun want ad.

These are among the hundreds of want ad "success stories" told each week to Sun adwriters.

Your Sun want ad will get the "5-in-1" treatment.

This means it will go into The Sun Shopping News and nearly 50,000 homes, on Wednesday.

And on Friday, it will go to thousands more homes in the Walnut Creek Sun, Orinda Sun, Lafayette Sun and Pleasant Hill Sun, regular subscription newspapers.

Your ad will cost only $1.60 if it is 14 words or less.

Call YE 4-5000, 284-4444 or CL 4-4444 and talk to a Sun adwriter!

Court Action Spurs Book Hoarders

Seventeen suits filed in small claims courts for recovery of long overdue county library books have resulted in cancellation of nine of these suits following return of the books or payment, according to Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, Contra Costa County librarian.

Publicity given to the suit filing has stimulated other negligent library patrons to return their borrowed books in apprehension of similar action against them.

The suits were filed only as a last resort, after these 17 patrons had been sent three notices, had been called upon by special messenger, and still failed to return borrowed books which are public property.

In most cases, the overdue books were valuable and had been repeatedly requested by individuals in various parts of the county, said Mrs. Hellum.

Dress-Right Theme Aimed Toward Men

The importance male apparel plays in the daily lives of men and boys is the highlight of a nation-wide observance of National Dress Right Week, this week.

Proposed two years ago in a joint congressional resolution, National Dress Right Week has become an important factor in the trend toward neat and appropriate dress in every part of the country.

Schools ranging from grade to college, teen-age organizations, churches, business and civic organizations will be active in the drive, as they have in previous years.

The nation's businessmen have also indicated support of the "Dress Right" concept, said Louis C. Pfeifle, president of the American Institute of Men's and Boy's Wear.

He said salesmen and other employees must make a good appearance to do the best job for themselves, the company, and the nation.

A "white collar" program has been developed directing Dress Right Week news into educational, retailing and corporate channels.

Migrants In County--Healthy?

The United Church Women of Contra Costa County will hold their annual migrant fellowship tea today at 1 p.m. at St. Michaels and All Angels Episcopal Church, Concord.

The committee is under the direction of Mrs. B. P. James.

Mrs. John Ahman of Walnut Creek is the migrant chairman for the council.

Mrs. F. A. Fielding, refreshments and nursery; Mrs. Cletus Harpe, invitations; Mrs. Elton Holladay, offering; and Mrs. Jack Corder, publicity.

Dr. Glen Kent, county chief assistant health officer, will speak on "Health Problems of the Migrants in Our County."

Kent has been working in this area for the health department and reports there has been some interesting changes this year in the migrant situation in our county.

Offering for the day will be used for scholarship fund for college-age student to spend summers working in the migrant camps throughout the state.

Handicapped Child Meet Is Scheduled

A meeting of the Contra Costa Association for Neurologically Handicapped Children will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m., at the P. G. & E. Building, 1535 Bonanza Street, Walnut Creek.

A report will be presented on recent legislation relating to these "N. H." (neurologically handicapped) children.

This association is for parents and friends of children with mild neurological damage, who do not qualify for the special programs and classes now in existence for children with cerebral palsy, severe mental retardation, or epilepsy.

One of the chief aims of this group is to promote local educational and recreational facilities for these children.

Persons interested in working with this group, or learning more about the problems of these children is invited to attend any or all of these meetings.

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at the P. G. & E. Building in Walnut Creek.

Realtors Attend Big Convention

Many Realtors and real estate salesmen from the central Contra Costa County area are attending the 57th annual convention of the California Real Estate Association in Los Angeles this week.

Over 5000 Realtors from 169 real estate boards throughout the state are expected to attend.

Garbage Plan Supported By McBrien

The 1960-61 County Grand Jury's recommendations on garbage collection and disposal have been endorsed by County Administrator J. P. McBrien.

McBrien in a recent report to the board of supervisors referred to the Grand Jury's recommendation that the county seek legislation, if necessary, to allow the county to administer all sewer disposal and treatment.

McBrien commented that the State Legislature would probably not support such a plan, and a state law would be necessary.

The Grand Jury also recommended that the master plan drawn up in 1957 for garbage disposal be put into effect.

The plan considered sites for future garbage dumps and division of the county into franchise districts.

McBrien said the county franchising of garbage operators would be desirable, in that the county would be able to control collection rates in the unincorporated areas as the cities do within their limits.

New Air Force Recruiter for This Area

Sergeant Thurston L. Egan has been assigned to the local Air Force Recruiting Office at 2183 Concord Boulevard, Concord. Sergeant George A. McMahon is transferring to the Oakland office.

Sergeant Egan will be the Air Force Recruiting Service representative for the Concord, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Orinda, Danville, Moraga, Lafayette, Clayton, Rheem, Pacheco, Alamo and Diablo areas.

He is a veteran of 10 years military experience in a wide variety of assignments.

His overseas assignments have included tours in both Far Eastern and European countries.

His last assignment prior to selection for recruiting duty was at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois, where he was awarded the Air Force commendation medal for meritorious service.

Before his transfer to Concord, Sergeant Egan attended the USAF Recruiting School at Lackland Air Force Force Base, Texas, where he graduated as the honor student of his class.

Mrs. Glover Honored as 'Volunteer'

Coordinating "Friendly Visitor" luncheons was but one of the numerous activities of energetic Mrs. John Glover, the Volunteer Bureau's Volunteer of the Month.

Because "she has always maintained a willingness and enthusiasm for any job undertaken," said Mrs. Kathryn Pell, area director of the United Crusade for Contra Costa County.

The luncheons were held throughout the county to better inform the public of the United Crusade's structure and operational activities.

Volunteering days began for Mrs. Glover in the Contra Costa Volunteer Bureau in 1956 when it was organized by the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce and the Junior League of Oakland.

A league member, she served as vice-chairman of the bureau's publicity committee and as chairman of the community activities.

A native of the Bay Area, she and her husband, John, now reside in Walnut Creek with their two boys, Hark, 11, and Jeff, 8.

Welch Heads Flood Control Commission

Steven Welch, Martinez attorney, has been elected chairman of the County Flood Control and Water Conservation District Board.

Welch was appointed to the board at the time of its creation in January, 1952. He succeeds Ed Rowland, who was not reappointed to the board this year.

Welch's officers are A. J. (Buck) Johnson, vice chairman; Forrest Simoni, secretary.

Other commissioners are Edwin Sellers, Gerald Deardorff and Tomas Vanasek, who are continuing as members, and Arthur Friedle of Pittsburg, a new member.

The board of supervisors recently reorganized the board, reducing the membership from nine to seven.

Glen Geddes and the late Irving Skeoch had resigned.

Rowland was not reappointed, and Friedle was added to the board, leaving the membership at seven.

Under the new system, each supervisor appoints one member from his district, and two more are appointed at large.

The commissioners at a recent meeting decided to spend some $10,000 in removing silt, vegetation and other obstacles from Zone 3-B creeks.

These include Walnut Creek channel, San Ramon, Las Trampas Pine and Grayson Creeks.

All creek land is owned by private citizens, and the improvements and maintenance are usually made possible by easements or rights of entry.

Women Voters To Discuss Tariff, Trade

U.S. tariff and trade policies will be discussed next week by members of the League of Women Voters of Concord - Diablo Valley, according to Mrs. Walter Schamel, program chairman.

The tariff and trade study is part of a two-year study of U.S. economic diplomacy, she said.

Meetings will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Bryce Bateman, 519 Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill; Wednesday at 9:45 a.m., at the home of Mrs. J. M. Adle, 4122 Canyon Road, Lafayette; and Thursday at 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Owen Nelson, 122 Alamatos Drive, Danville.

Mrs. C. V. Funk, league president, said that the meetings are open to all women of central Contra Costa County. Any woman qualified to vote may become a member of the league, she said.

Persons who wish to attend the meetings should call Mrs. Sam Harris or Mrs. George Hearne.

Interschool Council Has Election

The Foothill Interschool Council, with student body representatives from high schools in the Foothill Athletic League met last Friday to name officers.

Bill Klippert, Piedmont High, is president; Bill Ingham, Acalanes High, vice president; Carol Boeck, San Ramon High, secretary.

Members of the Foothill League include Alhambra High, San Ramon, Piedmont, Acalanes, Del Valle, Las Lomas, and Miramonte High Schools.

The council discussed the league's Sportsmanship trophy, Block club membership, and uniformity in giving athletic awards.

Next meeting of the Foothill Interschool Council will be held at Miramonte High in December.

Playhouse Is Won by Little Girl

Nine year old Carolyn Gomez of 12 Shady Lane Court, Walnut Creek, was the winner of the playhouse, given away at the Walnut Festival by the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

This is the tenth consecutive year that the real estate board has donated a playhouse.

The house was built by members of the Home Builders Association.

Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gomez.

Misuse of Language Is Topic

Dr. S. I. Hayakawa, a noted semanticist, will speak on "The Use and Misuse of Language" next Friday at 8 p.m. at the Marina Junior High School auditorium, Bay and Fillmore Streets, San Francisco.

The meeting will be sponsored by the Contra Costa and San Francisco chapters of the International Society for General Semantics.

Dr. Hayakawa is the author of "Language in Thought and Action," the editor of the magazine "ETC.: A Review of General Semantics," and professor of language arts at San Francisco State College.

Tickets are $1.50 at the door, or only $1.25 when ordered in advance from Robert Carr, 162 Loralee Place, Pleasant Hill.

Cancer Society Leaders to San Diego

Several Cancer Society leaders in Contra Costa are planning to attend the annual meeting of the society's California Division in San Diego's Hotel Del Coronado next Wednesday and Thursday.

Contra Costa's delegation will be headed by Dr. Jonas Schreider of Walnut Creek, county president.

Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin of Walnut Creek, past president and currently director of volunteer training, and Dr. L. Robert Martin of Concord, past president and a member of the state board, also will be delegates.

Others attending will be Mrs. John Selley of Walnut Creek, county director of cancer education; Mr. and Mrs. John Cooley of Walnut Creek; Mrs. Schreider; Mrs. J. K. Langdell of Saranap; Mrs. Helen Macfarlane, executive director of the Contra Costa Branch of the cancer society; and Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth of Orinda, public information director.

Explorer Cabinet Will Meet

Explorer cabinet members and advisors from all the eight districts of Mt. Diablo Boy Scout Council will meet tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Contra Costa Real Estate Board conference room, 1343 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Details of plans for the "Coed Rendezvous," scheduled for November 24-25, at Jones Gulch will be on the agenda.

All arrangements will be explained by Jess Ace Sellers, cabinet representative from Explorer Post 264, Pleasant Hill, general chairman of the rendezvous.

'Volunteers' Nat'l Director To Visit Here

Mrs. Abbot L. Mills, national director of American Red Cross Volunteers will meet local service group chairmen Tuesday at the Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter headquarters, 2121 Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek.

The meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Service group chairmen will discuss planning for the coming year. Mrs. Richard T. Myer of Orinda is the local volunteer chairman.

"All Red Cross programs in the Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter have shown a tremendous increase in the last several years. This increase is due to the efforts of each of the 14 service chairmen," said Mrs. Myer.

Mrs. Mills, herself a volunteer, began her Red Cross work in 1942.

She has worked in Red Cross Blood programs, Arts and Skills, and as chairman of volunteers of several Red Cross chapters.

Mrs. Mills' visit will include an appraisal of volunteer programs in the Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter area.

County Wants Administrative Assistant

Contra Costa County Civil Service Department announced it is seeking applicants for the position of administrative assistant, salary range $676-$821.

Minimum standards for this position include college graduation and three years of experience in research investigation in reporting on organizational, fiscal, or personal matters.

Four additional years of this type of experience may be substituted for the required education.

The final day for filing applications is October 20.

Contractor Leaps from Bay Bridge

The body of Anthony B. Gonsalves, contractor of 107 Spring Road, Orinda, was found early Tuesday on a Bay Bridge piling just west of Yerba Buena tunnel.

Last year Gonsalves had a last-minute change of mind and decided not to leap from the Golden Gate Bridge.

Highway patrolmen found his auto parked on the upper deck of the bridge in a west-bound lane. A note found in the car read, "I'm jumping off the bridge, please tell my wife."

The contractor's wife told authorities that her husband had been despondent over ill health.

Teller Speaks To Underwriters

Dr. Edward Teller, associate director of the Lawrence Radiation Laboratory, University of California, spoke Wednesday at a dinner for the Oakland-East Bay Chapter of the Chartered Life Underwriters Society.

Organist Will Be Honored By Local Churches

Many churches in this area will observe National American Guild of Organists' Sunday this weekend.

The special day is intended to recognize the work of dedicated church musicians, according to Lois Lynn Hardy of Danville, who is dean of the Contra Costa Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

She said, "The early Christian church looked upon organ playing much as we today would regard the playing of bongos or a steam calliope during the church service.

"IN NERO'S day, the organ was an instrument for circuses and carnivals. It wasn't until the eighth century that the organ began its gradual acceptance as a church service instrument."

"Our local Contra Costa chapter sponsors lecture-recitals, master classes and workshops, discussions, and it helps in repertoire, registration and professional problems.

"The purposes of the guild are to elevate the status of church musicians and to increase their appreciation of their responsibilities, duties and opportunities," she said.

Mrs. Hardy has served as organist at Danville Presbyterian Church and San Ramon Valley Congregational Church in Danville, Trinity Baptist Church in Concord, Valley Baptist Church in Walnut Creek, and for several churches on the San Francisco peninsula over the past 19 years.

SHE ALSO directed the junior choir at Valley Baptist Church in Walnut Creek.

Other officers for 1961-62 are sub-Dean Dawn Davis, organist and choir director, Concord Presbyterian Church; registrar Meta Leach, Christian Science, Danville.

Secretary Martha Ann Kimball, organist, Valley Baptist Church, Walnut Creek; treasurer William T. Stone, organist, Temple Sinai, Oakland, and organist and choirmaster, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek.

Members of the AGO board are Marvin Workinger, organist, St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek; Lillian E. Burford, organist, Danville Presbyterian Church, Danville; Berenice Anderson, organ recitalist, Walnut Creek.

THELMA Vandevort, organist, Walnut Creek Methodist Church, Walnut Creek, and Alva Fontaine, organist, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Pleasant Hill.

All organists, choir masters, music committee members, choir members and students and friends of music are eligible to apply for membership.

Engineers Will Hear Assemblyman

Jerome Waldie, Tenth District assemblyman, will speak at a dinner meeting of the Diablo Chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers.

The meeting will be Thursday, at Kellogg's Steak House, 1251 Arroyo Way, Walnut Creek.

Mormon Authority Will Speak

"Jews Discover America 2000 Years Before Christ," the title of an illustrated, free public lecture, will be given by Tom Ferguson on Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Ferguson, an Orinda attorney, is also a high priest of the Mormon Church, a noted archeologist and author of the book, "One Fold, One Shepherd."

He has led a number of recent expeditions to newly discovered archeological sites in Central America and Mexico.

There seems to be considerable evidence indicating migrations from Israel to Central America during the time period from 2000 B.C. to 500 B.C.

Some of the evidence tends to verify episodes described in the Book of Mormon and to change many notions of the history of civilization in Central America.

Ferguson will discuss the results of this recent research and also will show slides from his recent trip to Israel and the Middle East to examine a number of interesting artifacts.

A 'Detour' for Animal Center

People are coming across the bridge under the overpass and across the fields to reach the county's animal control center at Martinez, said Agricultural Commissioner Arthur L. Seeley.

"This unavoidable confusion is all due to highway construction near the intersection of Highway 4 and 21 when our access from Highway 4 was cut off recently," said Seeley.

To reach the animal control center the public is advised to turn onto Blum Road just north of intersection of Highway 4 and 21 and continue for one quarter mile, then turn right onto the Frontage Road and proceed for one quarter mile to the center.

Signs have been ordered to be installed at strategic locations along both highways, which will assist the public in finding the center, said Seeley.

Red Cross Helps Out At Festival

"The American Red Cross first aid station at the Walnut Festival again provided services, according to Red Cross first aid chairman Leigh Brilliant.

Some 53 persons were given assistance for major or minor injuries. The Red Cross ambulance was used 11 times.

Seven of these were for persons who suffered heat prostration during the parade.

Some 39 Red Cross volunteers, including nurses, gray ladies and first aiders, administered the first aid station.

These volunteers served a total of 216 hours in the three days of the festival.

In addition to rendering first aid, the first aid station assisted 216 other persons in needs not pertaining to first aid.

The Moraga Valley Church will meet for worship Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Old Moraga School. Doctor White has selected as his sermon topic for this week, the question, "Is God Emeritus?"

Parents are asked to register their children for the Church School Sunday at 10:30 a.m. The parent orientation to the use of The Faith and Life Curriculum in the home will follow preceding the service of worship.

The Senior High Westminster Fellowship will meet at the home of their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. William Grafft at 24 Donna Maria Way, Orinda, at 6:30 p.m.

The Junior High Fellowship meets at the manse, 5 Roberts Court, Moraga, at 11 a.m. Mr. James Roberts is the sponsor.

An adult study group will meet for eight weeks on Wednesdays beginning October 11. There will be identical study groups at 10:30 a.m. and at 8 p.m. Doctor White will conduct the study groups on the subject, "The Old Testament and Its Use Today." The seminars are open to the public and will be held in the Old Moraga School.

Lutheran

"The Epidemic of Faith" will be the sermon theme Sunday of Gerald Conrad, the parish intern at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane at the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. services. Sunday school offers two sessions. The first at 9:45 a.m. includes all ages. The second session has classes for three-year-olds through grade. A nursery is also available from the sunday school hour through the service time. The Couples Club will meet at 7:30 p.m.

The American Lutheran Church women will meet Tuesday for their circle meetings.

Mid-week Bible study will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Pingree, 3182 Acalanes Avenue, Lafayette Wednesday at 8 p.m.

The Women's Study group will meet on Thursday morning at 10 a.m. The senior choir will hold its weekly rehearsal on Thursday at 8 p.m.

Junior and senior confirmation classes meet on Saturday morning at 10 a.m.

Methodist

St. Mark's Methodist Church will move to a new schedule Sunday at 11 a.m. at Miramonte High School with worship and Sunday School meeting at the same hour.

Vic Smith, superintendent of the Church School, announces that the change is being made to enable parents with small children to attend church. Another worship service will be held at 10 a.m. for Church School teachers and other interested persons.

Reverend John L. Dodson will speak on the topic, "Exercising Your Extras" at 11 a.m.

At 7 p.m. the Youth Fellowship will hear an address entitled "What Is Distinctively Methodist" at the home of Tom Cline, 518 Miner Road.

The Women's Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Vic Smith, 59 Ardilla Road at 10 a.m. Child care is provided.

Baptist

"Encounter With Bondage" is the subject for the morning message at the First Baptist Church of Orinda-Lafayette. The pastor, Reverend Lawrence Guido is continuing in the series of "Interviews of Jesus."

Mrs. R. A. Sodestrom is the new superintendent of the Sunday School. Immediate plans call for a completely graded program of teaching with classes formed for each age group.

The church is located at 4300 El Nido Ranch Road. Services on Sunday are at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School meets at 9:45 a.m. and Youth Fellowship at 6:15 p.m.

Christian Sci.

Christian Science churches are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1437 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and at the corner of Grant and Park Streets, Concord.

Why the healing law of God can be relied upon to overcome sin and sickness will be explained Sunday at Christian Science church services.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" Among the Scriptural selections to be read are these words of Isaiah (33): "For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us. . . . And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity."

Selections will also be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Methodist

The Reverend George E. Berry will commence a series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer at the Sunday morning worship services, 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m., at the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, Lafayette. The first of the series will be "Our Father, Who Art In Heaven."

Nursery care for small children is provided during both worship services. Church School classes for all ages, high school and adult included, is held at 9:30 a.m.

Three youth groups meet Sunday evenings at 7 p.m. at the church—the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship for 7th and 8th graders; the Methodist Youth Fellowship for high school youth; and the Wesley Fellowship for college-age youth. Those interested are cordially invited to attend.

Episcopal

The service of Holy Communion will be held at St. Giles' Episcopal Church, Moraga, Sunday, beginning at 9:30 a.m. The Reverend Philip J. Daunton, Th.D., rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Church, Concord, will officiate. The vicar, Reverend William Frankhuizen, will assist in the service and speak on the subject of "Being and Becoming."

The Sunday School program will begin with registration of all children and classes start this week. Child care will also be provided.

St. Giles' Chapel is located adjacent to the Rheem Theatre in Rheem Center. Coffee hour will follow the service.

Suburban

Sunday the Reverend Gray Lambert will speak on the theme "Christ The Shepherd of the Sheep." His message will be taken from the Gospel according to St. John.

Mrs. Arthur Willhite of Walnut Creek will sing at the 11 a.m. service. The church is presently meeting at the Lafayette Veterans Building, 3499 Mt. Diablo Boulevard until the erection of permanent quarters. Nursery facilities are provided.

At the 10 a.m. service graded Bible classes are provided for all ages through the adult level. The church school uses Gospel Light Press Sunday School materials in their educational program.

Christian

Rev. Darwin A. Mann, minister, will speak on the topic, "What Faith Does to You," at the morning worship at 10 a.m.

Church school classes for all ages meet at 9 a.m. at the church.

Christian Youth Fellowship for youth from the ninth through twelfth grades will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. for a movie and election of officers. Chi Rho for seventh and eighth graders will meet at the church at 2 p.m. Sunday for a bike hike. Bring a sack lunch.

The morning Bible study, taught by Mrs. Darwin Mann, will meet for its first fall class on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Tom Hawkinson, 1943 Laurel Drive, Lafayette.

Episcopal

Holy communion will be celebrated at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda, Sunday at 7:30 a.m.

Morning prayer will be at 9 and 11 a.m.

The sermon will be delivered by the Reverend C. Corwin Calavan, who will preach on "Issues at the General Convention," the decisions of the National Convention of the Episcopal Church.

The Senior High Group will attend vesper services at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco, on Sunday at 3 p.m., followed by dinner at the Presidio Officers' Club.

Baptist

The Moraga Hills Community Baptist Church (¾ mile north of Rheem Center on Moraga Road) starts Sunday morning services at 9:45 a.m. with Church School for all ages. Adult Fellowship class is studying the beginnings of the Christian Church as outlined in the Book of Acts. At 11 a.m. Doctor Leonard Gittings, professor at the Baptist Divinity School in Berkeley and interim pastor, will give the morning message. Junior Church is also at 11 a.m.

Nursery is provided at both hours. Yokefellow groups meet on Monday evenings.

Lutheran

Reverend Albert Hidy, Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Orinda, has entitled the sermon for October 8th, "Three Cheers," for the 8 and 11 a.m. services. New members will be received at the 11 a.m. service and a coffee hour will follow in their honor at the parish house.

The Christian Service Workshop meets at the parish house on Tuesday, at 10 a.m. to continue their work on the pillows for a juvenile hall.

Episcopal

"The Doctrine of Creation" will be the sermon topic of the Reverend Stanley Smith at all Sunday services at St. Anselm's Episcopal Church, 682 Michael Lane, Lafayette. This will be the first of a series of three sermons relating to stewardship.

Services for Sunday will include Holy Communion, 8 a.m.; church school and family service, 9:15 a.m., and morning prayer, 11 a.m.

Midweek Holy Communion will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday of each week.

Presbyterian

"Does God Know What He Is Doing?" This is the question that will be discussed by the Reverend William Carl Thomas this Sunday.

This is the first of four sermons from the Book of the Ephesians under the general heading "Modern Man Confronts The Church."

Congregational

"Acceptance" will be the Reverend Chauncey Blossom's sermon topic at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship service at the Orinda Community Church. Lois Flenner, violinist, will play "Canzonetta" by Tschaikowsky for the prelude, accompanied by Don Hartsell on the organ.

Church school classes will be held during both services for three-year-olds through the eighth grade. A class for ninth and tenth graders will be held at 9:30 a.m. only. Child care will be provided.

Church to Hold Rummage Sale

Walnut Creek Unity Church Center will hold its annual rummage sale on Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Veterans Memorial Building, 1250 Locust St., Walnut Creek.

Many useful articles of clothing and miscellaneous items will be offered for sale.

Parish Members To Attend Rally

More than 1,000 members of St. Perpetua's Parish will trek to San Francisco's Golden Gate Park tomorrow, to participate in the largest public meeting ever held in the San Francisco Bay Area, Father John Quinn, pastor of St. Perpetua's Parish, reported today.

James Walsh, of 960 Stow Lane, is St. Perpetua's Parish chairman for the Family Rosary Crusade, and Robert Pulford, of 750 Los Palos Drive is associate chairman.

Under their direction, teams of lay "crusaders" have visited more than 900 families in St. Perpetua's Parish, gathering written pledges for daily family prayer, Father Quinn said.

The Crusade rally, which has drawn crowds of up to a million and a half persons throughout the world, will be held at 1 p.m., Sunday, in Golden Gate Park Stadium (the polo fields), San Francisco.

Scout Troop 233 Seeks Members

Boy Scout Troop 233, sponsored by the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, has begun its fall activities. Led by scoutmaster Johnson Clark of Lafayette, the boys have plans for an overnight beach campout. The troop has just held its first court of honor for the year.

Honored at the court of honor was Russell Birkhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Birkhead, 25 Daryl Drive, Orinda, who had achieved the rank of Star Scout.

Acknowledgment of advancement also went to Jim Morrison, second class and badges were awarded to John Weatherbe, Steve Clark, Dave Compas and Bill Summers. Year pins were awarded to much of the troop.

A recent troop committee meeting brought to the fore this troop's need for more members. Any interested boys and their parents are invited to contact Raymond Swanson, phone 283-6309. Visitors are welcome at the troop meetings. There are held on the second and fourth Mondays, in the evening, at the church.

St. Perpetua's 1-Week Mission Begins Sunday

Father John Quinn pastor of St. Perpetua's Church announced today that a one-week mission will begin in the parish Sunday evening at 8 p.m.

Two priests of the Jesuit Order, Father John Giambastiani, S.J. and Father Robert Savall, S.J., have been selected to conduct the Mission. During the week the Mission Devotions will be conducted every evening at 8 p.m.

The weekday Masses will be at 6:30 and 9 a.m. Confessions will be heard after the 6:30 a.m. Mass and before and during the 9 a.m. Mass, as well as after the evening devotions at 8 p.m.

On October 19 at 4 p.m., the traditional blessing of mothers and infants will be given.

The solemn closing with the papal blessing will take place on October 15, at 8 p.m.

A cordial invitation is extended to all, both Catholic and non-Catholic, to attend this Mission.

Miramonte Mirror

By KITTY MIKA AND ANN LINCOLN

Friday's game was another step up the ladder in Miramonte's climb to the top of the league. With all the boys on the team out there fighting, the Matadors took Albany with a score of 26 to 13. Congratulations to Dean Hilger, who played a great game!

With the help of the pom pon girls and the cheerleaders, the 12th Man put in a good performance, too. A big green "M" was organized in the rooting section.

In the beginning of the third quarter things looked black for the Matadors when Albany scored a touchdown, which made it 13 to 12, their favor. Tears were noticed in the eyes of quite a few senior rooters, and Betty Schoppe just couldn't seem to hold hers back.

TO CELEBRATE Miramonte's victory, a dance was held at St. Stephens from 9 to 12 p.m. Everyone was in a great mood, and the room was packed. Zany Pat Kelly managed to talk the ear off of many a boy—"Did you know the American sandollar....?

Pete Boyle and Cindy Gravelle, Roger McCosker and Cheri Romer, John Lacki and Karen Stafford, Ron Jouthas, and Ron Stuccor were a few of the teens that were dancing up a storm.

Friday night was also another big night at La Val's, with the Untouchables and Jerry Wallace doing the entertaining. Some of the countless teens there were Keith Norbeck, Janice Hempstead and Gary McCosker, Candy Hackler and Bob Lyman, Keith St. Clair, Carol Carpenter, and Chris Combs.

THE SOPHOMORE Car Wash at Mike Lynn's was a huge success except for a few minor mishaps. Some of the crowd scrubbing and polishing were Chris Campbell, Sharon Huebschwerlen, Mike Gilmore, and Miss Snyder, who managed the money. There was one car in particular that created quite a problem—it seems it was coated with mud from bumper to bumper.

Saturday night was movie night for Orinda teens. Sue Nattress and Paul McChesney laughed all the way through "Come September." Wendy Wilcox and Dick Miller planned on seeing "Fanny," but somehow they ended up in China Town.

Jane White and Dave Parish, with their chaperones Jo-an Scholberg and Ann Lincoln, sat through a "sneak preview" and loved every minute of it. Jackie Villata and Rob Mcleod saw the "Pit and the Pendulum." Three senior couples—Carolyn Coburn and Dick Sutliffe, Sue Hancock and Rick Bedayn, and Sue Pollaczek and Jake Jacobsen went all the way to El Cerrito to see "Teahouse of the August Moon."

SATURDAY saw Miramonte pom pon girls and cheerleaders at a conference in Pittsburg for an exchange of ideas with other schools. Some of the schools represented were Pleasant Hill, Pacifica, Del Valle, and Pittsburg. On the way home the girls stopped at Suttons, and it seems they gave the salesman a hard time.

Sunday was quite a day for football. The Thunderbirds won their game against Pittsburg, 20 to 6. The 49ers won 49 to 0, and to the joy of the Raider pom pon girls, the Raiders beat Denver 33 to 19.

It was quite a day for the girls, especially Wendy Wilcox who couldn't quite keep her feet under her in one routine—"later for you" Wendy! Now that the Raiders are winning let's all go out there and support them!

OUR DEEPEST sympathy goes to first period physiology with all their quizzes. Somehow sixth period manages to luck out.

Everyone be sure and come to the game tonight at Vallejo!

Prof. Searcy To Lecture

Professor Alan Searcy will be the guest speaker at the first morning coffee and lecture series sponsored by the Friends of the Orinda Library next Wednesday morning, 10 a.m.

Professor Searcy has just returned from seven months spent in Argentina where he taught at the Institute of Physics in San Carlos De Bariloch under a Fulbright lectureship.

He lives in Orinda with his family and is on the faculty at the University of California where he is a professor of material science. The subject under discussion will be "Southern Argentine Today."

The program has been arranged by Mrs. Fred Crawshaw, program chairman.

Greeting guests will be Mrs. Sheldon Allen, hospitality chairman. Mrs. Miles Hudson is chairman of the Friends of Orinda Library.

An invitation is extended to all Orinda residents to attend this interesting event whether or not they have a library card or are members of the friends.

Local Men Attend Shell Award Party

More than 165 residents of the cities and towns in Northern California were hosted by Shell Oil and Shell Chemical companies last Friday at San Francisco's Olympic Club. The occasion is the annual service award party of the company's San Francisco office.

Those attending from Orinda included Lawrence R. White, D. C. McMacken, R. E. Van Sickel and G. A. Arel.

What new grass needs to thrive

The nutritional needs of seedlings are even greater than those of established grass. That's why it's so important to apply Scotts TURF BUILDER® on the same day you sow Scotts seed.

Turf Builder releases its protein-building diet as it's needed, helping young grass build strong roots and grow thicker, and sturdier. Wonderful benefits, for so little effort: just fill the Scotts Spreader with clean, granular Turf Builder, set the dial and walk it on!

My Favorite RECIPE
BY Nancy Black

Hello Gourmets:

As long as this warm weather is going to persist, let's have a fling at a wonderful salad, which was sent in by one of you readers. I tested it on my family, and they were delighted! These proportions are for main dish.
¼ lb. spaghetti, broken into 2 inch pieces, cooked. 2 tbsn. dry white wine, 1 tbsn. wine vinegar, 1 tspn. olive oil, ¼ tspn. salt, pinch of pepper, 1 stalk celery, thinly sliced, 10 oz. pkg. frozen artichokes, thawed and quartered, ¼ cup mayonnaise, 1 tbsn. tomato paste, 2 hard-cooked eggs, 2 tbsn. chopped parsley, ¼ lb. cooked ham, coarsely chopped (or leftover chicken).

Keep spaghetti lukewarm.

In a bowl combine wine, vinegar, salt, oil and pepper. Add celery and artichokes. Let stand ½ hour, turning occasionally.

Meanwhile, combine mayonnaise and tomato paste. Stir well. Separate yolks and whites of hard-cooked eggs and chop separately.

In heated mixing bowl, combine spaghetti and mayonnaise mixture. Mix well. Add celery and artichokes. Toss gently. Correct seasoning.

For serving: Put salad in large bowl. With a spatula arrange salad in dome shape. Arrange parsley, chopped yolks, chopped egg whites, and ham (or leftover chicken) on top of salad.

Serves 4 to 6. I suggest a chilled white wine to accent the taste of this really heavenly cuisine.

See you next week?

The Sociables

By MARIE MONAHAN

HILL & DALE members put on their dancing shoes last Saturday night for another trip to the land of the Light Fantastic held at Orinda Country Club.

Co-dance chairmen were the Hi Henningses of Orinda and the Gerald Aweses of Lafayette w/committee members Stan & Van Holmgren, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Lundblad, the Charles Coburns & William Thurlows a part of the crowd on hand who could have danced all night.

Together w/the William Thurlows, Hi & Jane Hennings cohosted a long no-host table at the dinner that punctuated the gala dancing party.

Groups small & large attended more than a score of predinner dance cocktail parties, some of which were hosted by the Robert Fieldses, Nils Ecklunds, John and Kay Radcliff, the Rick Warners, John Van Dynes & Gordon Martins.

Dr. and Mrs. William Hanford joined forces w/Dr. & Mrs. William Howes at the latters' home and Dr. & Mrs. William Leftwich were also on the greeting end for earlier guests.

LINENS, pretty as well as practical, were showered on Barbara Williams of El Toyonal at a recent shower hostessed by her friend "down the hill," Cornelia Adams.

'Back to School' For Miramonte

Miramonte High School parents assumed student roles Monday at 8 p.m. when the parents club held its annual back-to-school night.

Each parent was provided with a copy of his child's daily program schedule, and followed this program throughout the evening, visiting classrooms and teachers for 10-minute periods.

Parents and teachers adjourned to the cafeteria for refreshments at the end of the program.

Among friends who showered gifts & good wishes on the pretty school teacher & mother of two who will marry Mr. Walter Irving on October 20 in Reno, were Virginia Barkelew, Jean Weirich, Kay Brush, Cecil Fahey, Poppy Rowe & Hazel Vieira.

MORE FOR the fun of pretty packages & a cutting of the festive cake that was pretty as a wedding one were Isobel Coates, Beryl Hoyer, June Hale, Lois O'Reilly, Jane Lester & Pat Darrow. Another guest, Doris Scott of Camino del Cielo was beaming like a bride & why not? She'll be wed too, two weeks after Barbara, on November 4, to Stan Jackson of Oakland in a family ceremony at Orinda Community Church. In the cases of both, two families of children will be united. Barbara, who is the mother of two, will have three more by her marriage to Irving. Doris, whose children number three, will have her household swelled by an addition of two We think it's wonderful! Happy Weddings to both!

The La Cintilla home of Dr. & Mrs. J. Wallace Neighbor was the setting recently for a luncheon hostessed by Win Neighbor for some fifty wives of the Kaiser-Permanente medical staff.

Hats Off To...

Frank Newman, Dean of School of Law at U.C.

A SALUTE, please, to Frank Newman, new dean of the School of Law at the University of California, his most recent post and honor in a distinguished career in administrative law and legislative process.

A member of the California Citizen's Legislative Advisory Commission, Dr. Newman has served on the Council for the Governor's Commission on Unemployment Compensation and as a consultant to the General Accounting Office (GAO) in Washington, D.C.

A GRADUATE of Boalt Hall over which he now presides, Newman has combined an active career with various community interests, is one of Orinda's most solid citizens. His wife, Fran, has been active in the AFS committee, the gamut of Cubs and Girl Scouts and an active member and past officer of the Orinda Estates Association.

THE FAMILY, who make their home on Acacia Drive, share a mutual interest in music. Professor Newman still tinkles the ivories that helped him work his way through Dartmouth College ('38); now pursues his piano interests as a member of the lively East Lafayette Marching & Funeral Band, a dixieland jazz group comprised mainly of faculty members.

RECENTLY returned from a research leave in Switzerland, the Newmans lived and schooled in Lausanne, where daughter Julie, 16, an accomplished pianist, remains to continue her junior year of high school. Son Bob, 19, a Miramonte grad, plays trombone, was a member of the Young People's Symphony and an AFS exchange student to Italy; nine-year-old Ralph, a fourth grader at Orinda, is taking up the trombone, and Holly, just 3½, sings her do-re-mi's at nursery school. The family's hobby is a tiny log cabin at Echo Lake that dates back to Fran's childhood. Here, the family finds a cozy retreat from a life that is full, rich and rewarding.

More Study, Calmness Of Thought Needed Here

If there was ever an emotion-packed problem lurking in Central Contra Costa County, that problem is the unification of the Acalanes Union High School District with the elementary school districts lying within its boundaries.

At last week's meeting of the County Committee on School District Reorganization, The Sun was criticized for supporting unification of the entire Acalanes area into one unified school district.

Much of the criticism seemed to stem from the belief that The Sun based its recommendation on the recently completed Odell report of the Stanford Research Group.

This is not entirely true.

THIS QUESTION of unifying the Acalanes district has been going on now for more than four years, and many studies have been made.

Much information has been presented on the problem, and actually it was only after long consideration that The Sun made its recommendation in favor of total unification.

Actually, The Sun came to the decision to recommend "horizontal" unification before the Stanford report was even submitted, but held back until the latest information could be presented.

An editorial appeared on this page almost a year ago pointing this out. A recommendation would have been made then, but we weren't thoroughly convinced at that time.

EVEN NOW, though The Sun has recommended total unification, we are convinced that the status quo is better than any partial or "vertical" unification plan.

It is important to remember that the studies are not really complete, and they won't be until the final verdict is in, because our local trustees—and you, too—have a voice in this matter.

Furthermore, if The Sun becomes convinced that the status quo would be better than even total unification, it will not hestiate to say so in print.

THERE IS ONE criterion for judging any problem which involves our school districts.

That is, simply, what is best for our children. Under which system will they be given the best education possible.

A secondary, but unimportant consideration is what is best for our community. When it comes to unification, this includes cost, and as you know this is important because schools take by far the largest bite out of our tax dollar.

It is important for each of us, both individuals and organizations, to study this problem thoroughly and as objectively as possible.

We now have a report in our hands, and we have previously reported material to use and compare. This is extremely important because it affects probably the two most important areas of our lives—our children, and perhaps, our pocketbooks.

IF FURTHER information is presented to The Sun that sheds additional light on the matter, The Sun will not hesitate to reconsider its position.

The Sun has been criticized for presenting only one side of the unification argument, but this also is not entirely the case.

In the first case, The Sun has presented only the results of official studies or meetings, with the recommendations that are made by these studies or groups.

It was apparent at the unification meeting last week that residents were actually afraid to make statements and give their names because, as one lady said, "we will be crucified."

THE COLUMNS of The Sun are always open and we are not going to crucify anybody for his beliefs.

On the other hand, the best way to fight for your beliefs is directly, and not through innuendo or in unsigned broadsides.

This whole problem should, eventually, be decided on the above mentioned criterion of what is best for our children, first, and our communities second.

Certainly there is room for difference of opinion, but there is also need for understanding.

Perhaps through study and discussion such understanding will come.

No Place to Hide?

By DICK OSBORN

Bomb shelters are much in the news these days.

You read about people in New York state who have built elaborate seven-room shelters underground, complete with wells and diesel generators.

And you read about do-it-yourself $30 fallout shelters built of sandbags and railroad ties in the back yard.

And everywhere you go, to seek for real information, you run into confusion.

Is it best to build a shelter?

Is it best to evacuate in the case of nuclear attack?

OPINIONS—even official opinions—vary. But you can't blame the officials, even though it is their job to know.

In these days of tension and anxiety, things are constantly changing. What is "right" today is "wrong" tomorrow. Confusion reigns.

It has been amusing, in a grim sort of way, to question intelligent people about bomb shelters. Try it, and see the reactions that you get.

WHEN THE conversation is on another subject completely, just turn to a friend and ask, "What do you think about bomb shelters?"

You'll get some amazing reactions.

One of these ones I cherish came from a person I consider intelligent and witty. A member of The Sun staff, but unfortunately not an editorial man.

He said, "Are your serious?" I said I was and he replied, after a moment's pause:

"I wouldn't build one. Because if I did, and I survived, I'd have to live in a world populated by the kind of people who would build bomb shelters."

Think about that one for a while, it gets to you.

Another individual answered, "Heck no. I think it's up to the government to build these things."

When I pointed out that that was all well and good, but that the government wasn't doing it, he said:

"YES, I KNOW, so if it ever happens I'll just go out and stand on the front porch and shake my fist."

So far, in my questionings, I have yet to meet a single individual who would consider building an efficient bomb shelter. Every one I have questioned feels that if the situation reaches that level it is hopeless.

Maybe this is conceding defeat before the battle. Maybe it's saying the same thing as, "We're strong, but if somebody is going to pull the trigger, we'll fight back, but we'll lose."

I don't know. I do know that in my talks with civil defense authorities I have had the wits scared out of me.

I ALSO FOUND out that some of the civil defense people I talked to don't have bomb shelters either, but they are "planning on building them."

It looks pretty much like it is a personal matter—and survival is always a personal matter.

But you know, it seems as if people either don't believe it, don't believe the situation is really serious, or think the whole thing is hopeless—in the hands of fate.

Do you fit into any of these groups?

LIFESAVERS

The best drivers allow a safe distance between their car and the one ahead. This margin should be at least 35 feet when traveling at a speed of 30 miles per hour, 50 feet when traveling at 40 miles per hour, 75 feet when traveling at 50. Don't place impossible demands upon your reflexes by being a "bumper hugger," says the California State Automobile Association. Allow a generous margin and be safe.

Is Modern Woman An Amazon in Disguise?

By MARIE MONAHAN

NO WONDER the ladies are on the vitamin & muscle-toning kick—doing their fancy footwork & flexing their muscles in front of the TV as soon as the kids have departed for school.

Madame is building up her strength, Sir, to cope with the fantastic packaging that is the feature of many foodstuffs upon her kitchen shelves.

You know the ones that come in duro-double nifty-thrift wrap packs . . . or the jars that feature the easy (?) twist-off cap.

NOTHING renders me more a physical wreck than frustratedly coming to grips with a package I cannot open.

Methinks the manufacturers of foodwares figure us gals some sort of muscle-powered Amazons. Surely today's packaging is being carried a bit too far.

IN THE privacy of your kitchen you can wind up with a broken wrist—a case of apoplexy not to mention a whole new vocab of not very ladylike words.

GIVE ME, instead of the super market's slick-pack sellers, the old Corner Store of my childhood where the proprietor, usually called "Pop" (they all were) scooped up a gooey mass of peanut butter into a brown paper square & offered a tasty sample before you carted home, at a nickel a pound, a butter tub or firkin full of the heavenly smelling roasted stuff.

Peanut butter in a paper carton . . . or apple butter. Cheese cut to size from a big yellow wheel. Ditto salami sliced into an easily accessible mound on butcher paper.

NONE of this push-pull polyethylene business—or aluminum stay-fresh stuff with one bag inside another bag inside still another foil wrap for which the customer is paying to the hilt—more for the cover than the contents.

Many's the product I've sworn (literally) never to purchase again because I had to turn a somersault to open the darn thing—or call the Fire Department to resuscitate me.

I BANG. I hammer. I tap-tap calmly. Then not so calmly.

I holler for the kids. I holler for my husband. I can't find the scissors. Bring me the scissors. . . . If you want any lunch, BRING ME THE SCISSORS.

O, it's a nerve-wracked time faced with a package that won't yield to, well, never mind the scissors, bring me the pick-axe!

IS IT NECESSARY to thump, rattle & shape . . . to turn purple with veins protruding & eyes popping just to open a bag of baloney?

While the baby squalls for her supper, Mama is slumped over in a prostrated heap from too long the Herculean hold on the little round jar disc.

The morning toast grows cold while Mama goes green trying to pry the cap off a Twist & Turn jam jar.

The only thing that gets twisted & turned is her hand, unusable the rest of the day.

INSTEAD of trying to invent a better mousetrap, Gentlemen, let's concentrate on some simple packaging.

The WIFE you save may be your own!

LaFrantics Is Terrific! Plan to Attend Tonight

By JEAN JERNIGAN

"Hello Dere, Ma Fren," currently playing Friday and Saturday nights at the Lafayette Town Hall is a rare mixture of melodrama and olios.

Rare, because the production entirely an amateur effort, has the polish of the professional. The characters, with seemingly no effort, bring forth gales of spontaneous laughter from the audience.

It is obvious that everyone in the production is having a wonderful time. The feeling bubbles over to the audience whose laughter and applause more than proves the production is tops.

PAT GREEN (with eyes on the wealth) is terrific as Anna Alvardo in "The Drama." She evokes boos, whistles and catcalls from the audience, who thoroughly enjoy her provocative performance.

Betsey Young (100 per cent heroine) is both attractive and accomplished in her role. Jerrie Burnside's appearance as Eloise Dalton, the unattractive idiot-like child of the Dalton's brought down the house.

Jerrie, one of the more attractive Lafayette matrons, is a skilled artist and writer. She has now proven she is also an actress. Only a true devotee of the theater would appear in the make-up and costume Jerrie wears in the drama . . . to say nothing of the olios.

FAMILIAR faces in unfamiliar poses, such as Art Robson, local attorney as the sculptor, Ev Peterson, Doc Scortt, Jack Holder, in ridiculous but fantastically funny olios add much to the production's mirth.

Beer served in the "Rathskeller" (with plenty of soft drinks for youngsters and teetotalers) continues the atmosphere of gay informality between acts

Dan Welty, who serves as master of ceremonies (and even he is FUNNY) deserves plaudits for producing the 1961 LaFrantics.

For family fare, special date, or "something different to do" LaFrantics is the answer.

THOSE WHO attend will find the $1.75 admission little to pay for a rollicking good time. Proceeds from LaFrantics benefit the Lafayette Community Center. The center is available for use by community organizations and youth groups.

Letters to The Editor

TAX ASSOCIATION

Dear Editor:

It was with interest that I noted the enclosed announcement of the new officers of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

Please note that the residence of almost everyone listed is shown—except Dr. L. E. Carbert, the outgoing past president. It is my understanding that Dr. L. E. Carbert is a resident of San Mateo County—which may account for some unusual orientation in the past year on the part of the association.

I ALSO note that among the new members of the executive committee is listed one Carl Graddy identified only as "tax manager for Standard Oil in Richmond"—but it does not indicate whether Mr. Graddy lives in our county.

This raises some interesting questions about the executive committee of this association. One must agree that corporations are taxpayers—and that Standard Oil Company is one of the largest. However, it would appear prudent that their representative should also be a resident of the county.

We must not forget that much of the taxes levied on corporations do not directly benefit corporations. For example, taxes for school districts cost corporations a great deal of money—but the benefits apply to the residents, only a few of whom may be employees of the corporation.

Therefore, a taxpayers association that predominantly reflects major corporation tax thinking could, for tax-saving purposes, often find itself acting against the needs of the residents.

I DO not mean to intimate that this has or is happening; I merely point out the possibility of conflict. I think the readers of The Sun would be very much interested in knowing more of the background of the key people in the "Contra Costa Taxpayers Association" so that we may judge more accurately whom they represent.

I might also point out that the lists of new members of the association which I sometimes see list a predominating number of out-of-county addresses. This might indicate that support is being obtained from absentee — land owners to aid in tax reduction which might or might not be to the detriment of residents of the county.

Once again I would suggest that The Sun readers would like to know more about the membership of the association so as to judge who they represent.

ROBERT KAHN

Collier Bill Dents School Construction

In the elaborate system of put and take by which state funds are disbursed, Contra Costa County's schools win some and lose some this year.

Eight districts are receiving $273,941 worth of "free" school construction because the state defers whatever loan repayment would push the tax for local bonds and state loans over 45 cents.

Taxpayers aren't receiving as much of a break as appears on the surface, however.

Two years ago approximately the same group of school districts were "forgiven" more than $1,000,000 in repayment.

Then came the Collier bill, recalled assistant county superintendent Harold De Fraga, and the school districts which were receiving equalization aid and other state funds to compensate for low assessed valuation per pupil suffered a loss—of 8 per cent last year and now of 5 per cent, the percentages which the State Board of Equalization finds the county's rate of assessed valuation was below the average of the counties of California.

State loan repayment is tied to this ratio also.

This year the districts of low assessed valuation per pupil receive some relief in that an amendment to the Collier bill shifts to a countywide tax the cost of making up the loss in equalization and other funds.

But, said De Fraga, no provision is made to offset the loss where state loan repayment is concerned. This is still absorbed by the local school district.

Amounts this year, with deferments in parentheses, are as follows for local schools: Alamo, $81,246 ($12,067); Danville Union, $150,460, ($12,134); Lafayette $308,450 ($47,266).

Mt. Diablo Unified, $1,123,801 ($24,637); Walnut Creek, $263,044 ($100,533); Moraga, $1708; Orinda Union, $11,851; Acalanes Union High School District, $57,205, and San Ramon Valley Union High School District, $12,935.

World of the Ride Group Surely Here to Stay

By ELEANOR SILVERMAN

Life is one big, giant ride group. It's like pestilence, war, and famine—inevitable.

The ride group problem hits a peak when the children reach early teens. Activities hit an all-time high, and the children are not quite old enough to borrow father's car.

Friday night is the big night.

"Mother, do you want to pick up or take to the dance tonight?"

To Take or to Pick Up

"Let's see, if I pick up after, I'll be near the movie, so that I can bring the kids home from the movie at the same time."

"Mother, Mary invited me to go to the meeting with her."

"Good,"I mutter to myself, "That means one less child to take or pick up."

But it seems I am living in a dream world. It turns out that Mary only invited my daughter to the meeting so that she could ask us if her family could take and we could bring home.

Oh well, the evening's killed anyway. Might as well drive in ten directions as nine.

Solution to the Problem

Some people, and I envy them in a way, solve the inevitable problem by bravely avoiding it. They say they will not submit themselves to the constant phoning and arranging and planning. They will simply cart their own children to and from every event. In other words, a one family, all-inclusive ride service.

It's an idea, but I don't think it is practical unless you happen to have a two-man, mother-father team with two cars available at all times, and perhaps a grandfather and grandmother on call.

Another solution offered by President Kennedy is to have the children ride bikes. He argues that the physical fitness of our nation's children is being threatened by the constant car riding, and that the children should be encouraged to ride bikes as in the good old days.

I agree heartily, and bikes are a big help most of the time.

Bikes Up Snake Hill

But I wonder if Hyannis Port has hills and freeways like Contra Costa County, and I wonder if it gets dark about 5 p.m. in the winter. I always shudder when I am driving down "snake hill" (Reliez Station Road) at dusk and see a kid trudging with bike in hand slowly up the hairpin turns.

Another solution is to set up hard and fast rules. You inform your children that you are not available for ride service unless you are given at least 24 hours notice. All ride groups are to be arranged in advance. All ride requests are to be posted in writing on the bulletin board.

"Mom, we've got to get going to pick up Sue, Gwen and Marilyn in Charles Hill, and Linda in Scottsdale to get to the Scout meeting at Buckeye Ranch."

I appear in bath robe, slippers, and scrambled hair. "Why didn't you tell me about this in advance?"

"I did."

"Oh."

Can You Make It Work?

Well, it's an idea anyway. If any of you can make it work, please let me know.

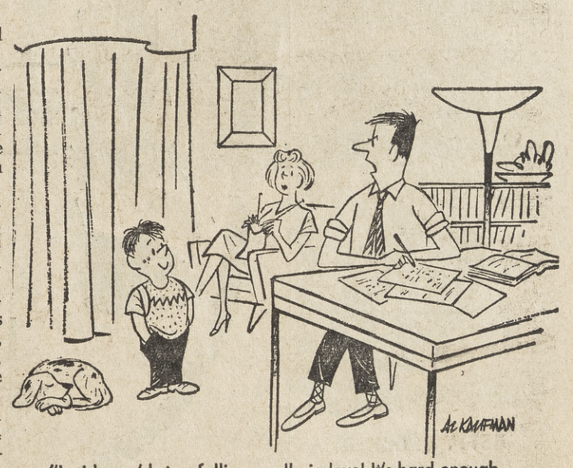
I believe that the Boy Scouts, and the Girl Scouts, and the school dances, and Sunday School, and the orthodontist, and dancing lessons, and music lessons, and play practices, and football games and 4-H Club, and tennis matches are all worthwhile activities. I really do.

I wouldn't trade our life in the suburbs for the city with its curbs and sidewalks and its streetcars and busses.

The world of the ride group is definitely here to stay, and furthermore . . . .

"Hey, Mom, let's go."

Sorry, guess I can't write any more right now.



"I wish you'd stop falling madly in love! It's hard enough doing your homework without having to do Janie Zimmerman's, too!"

Diablo Decorama Is Here

"Diablo Decorama" sponsored by four units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center opened with a preview party last Friday evening at the Diablo Country Club.

It will continue daily 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. through October 15.

Donation tickets are $2 and may be purchased at the door. The Preview Party was sponsored by the Flicker Unit. Mrs. Robert Ramelli of Walnut Creek is chairman.

The antique group settings in the foyer of the club were arranged by Mrs. Estelle Kumpf of Danville.

Mrs. Julian Ramelli of Walnut Creek, well-known in the Bay Area for flower arrangements, was responsible for the table decor in gold and black carrying out this year's color scheme.

Guests enjoyed a leisurely view of the Decorator's and Fine Art Show in the chalet, rambling guest house of the country club.

Mrs. A. R. Rubey of Diablo coordinated the Decorator's Show while Mrs. Robert DeChane of Danville, the Art Show. Both are members of the Mary Doyle Unit.

Chalet decorators are David Hall, Karl R. Hamel of Bonynge's, William F. Spencer of Breuners of Oakland; J. F. Howland, K. H. Lengfeld, Richard L. Beck, Val Arnold of San Francisco; Malcom Macgregor and Gene Burkett of Jacksons in Walnut Creek; Mrs. Ria Wayner of Stone Pieree and Mr. D'Onofrio of D'Onofrio's Interiors in Berkeley and Joe Downs of Down's Interiors Orinda.

Bay Area artists whose paintings are being shown are: John Saccaro, Peter Shoemaker, Blanche Brody, Julius Waserstein, Glenn Wessels, Fred Reichman, Robert Bechtle, George Ball, Joseph Brooks, Elizabeth Voelker, Richard Bowman, Gordon Onslow-Ford, Sabro Hasegawa, Erle Loran, Charles Griffen Farr, Lundy Siegriest and Louis Siegriest.

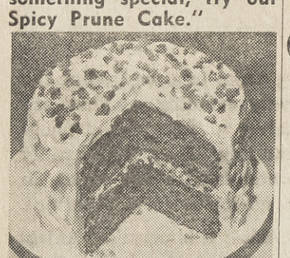
Staffing is being handled by Mrs. Theodore Lake of Danville, Mary Doyle Unit chairman and Mrs. Alfred E. Patch of Martinez, Nightingale Unit chairman.

Mrs. Fred Hair of Alamo, chairman of the Towhee Unit announces there will be a fashion show luncheon on Wednesday and Thursday. Reservations are necessary and should be made with Mrs. Hair, Mrs. Ott Gardner of Walnut Creek, or Mrs. Jared Abell, Pleasant Hill.

PLANNING FOR a gala "Gay Paree" supper dance to be presented October 14 by the Immaculata Guild of St. Mary's Catholic Church are: left, Mrs. Frank Mayes, dance chairman, and, right, Mrs. Robert Mueller, Guild president.

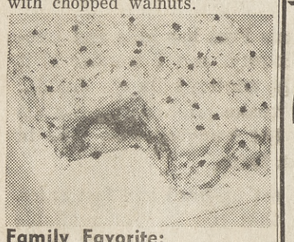
DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

"Cupcakes are a fun dessert — and a nice snack, too. Set them out for the children after school or pass round a gala plateful when it's television time. Or for something special, try our Spicy Prune Cake."



Cake-of-the-week:
SAN FERNANDO PRUNE CAKE

Make Betty Crocker Honey Spice Cake Mix batter as directed—except use ½ cup prune juice as part of liquid. Bake in 9" layers and cool. Make Betty Crocker Fluffy White Frosting Mix as directed—except use ½ cup boiling prune juice for liquid. For filling fold ½ cup chopped, cooked prunes, ½ tsp. grated lemon rind into ¾ cup frosting. Frost top and sides with remaining frosting; garnish with chopped walnuts.



Family Favorite:
BRAZILIAN MARBLE CAKE

Make Betty Crocker Marble Cake Mix batter as directed—except use cold brewed coffee instead of water or add 1 tbsp. powdered instant coffee to yellow batter. Pour into prepared oblong pan, 13x9½x2". Marble. Bake and cool. Prepare Betty Crocker Fluffy White Frosting Mix as directed—except add 2 tsp. powdered instant coffee. Fold in ½ cup chopped chocolate pieces. Frost cake.

After school treat:
CUPCAKES AND MILK

Pick your favorite Betty Crocker Cake Mix—and follow the easy package directions for cupcakes. Frost with any one of our Betty Crocker Frosting Mixes. Then decorate with candy shot or sprinkles or make faces with bits of candied fruit. Serve with milk for a nourishing, tasty snack.

Buckeye Ranch Scene Of Poolside Roundup

A "poolside roundup" party will be given at Buckeye Ranch, Saturday at 2 p.m., by members of the Alta Bates Hospital Volunteer Association, according to Mrs. William Picard of Lafayette, chairman.

Beginning with a horsemanship show in the Buckeye Corral, entertainment will include an aquacade by the Athens Club, a frontier musical revue, hayrides, a staged gun battle and dancing to the music of a Dixieland band.

Dr. Donald Kennedy of Lafayette and Dr. Richards P. Lyon of Oakland will perform in the revue.

Among the other entertainers are Mrs. Robert Brigante and Mrs. Sheldon Cook of Lafayette, Mrs. Charles Beckett of Orinda, and Mrs. Richard Garrett of Walnut Creek.

Several parties have been arranged to precede the roundup party. Among those already announced is one hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Holmes at their Happy Valley, Lafayette, home. They have invited over 100 friends for swimming and brunch.

Sylvia Bolman Is Recently Pledged

Sylvia Bolman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Bolman of 15 Van Tassel Lane, Orinda, is one of the 24 new pledges of the University of California chapter of Gamma Phi Beta.

Sylvia and her pledge sisters were "presented" to their friends and relatives Saturday night.

KING'S DAUGHTERS attending the first national convention to be held in Orinda today are: from left to right, Mrs. Russell Usinger and Mrs. H. J. Hart of Lafayette; Mrs. James Dupuis, Orinda, and Mrs. Alfred Virden, Walnut Creek. Officers of the Northern Branch, King's Daughters and Sons will be elected, and delegates will be chosen for the international convention to be held in Oakland in May, 1962.

Heidi Chapter To Entertain At Castlewood

Eight Contra Costa matrons have accepted an invitation from Heidi chapter of Children's Home Society to model for "Arden Artistry," their 13th annual fashion show luncheon October 19 at Castlewood Country Club.

Mrs. Lillian Macmillan, commentator for the show, says that the clothes to be presented this year will be full of color for both day and night.

The following matrons will model for the benefit luncheon: From Danville and Alamo, Mesdames Ridgway Woodburn, A. K. George, C. Wadsworth White and E. Walton Kir; from Orinda, Mrs. B. S. Ginsburg; from Lafayette, Mesdames Robert H. Goodale and Lloyd E. Kindall, and from Walnut Creek, Mrs. Jack Turman.

Valerie Vaccaro of Danville, niece of Mrs. Frank Rossi of Lafayette, party chairman, will portray Heidi. Each year for the last twelve, a little girl has been invited to lead the parade of models and be the theme girl for the party.

The teen-age daughters of two chapter members will assist the models on and off the ramp. Dressed in Arden gowns will be the Misses Lee Rossi and Carla Gudnason.

Reservations may be made for the luncheon and fashion show through any Heidi member or by calling YE 4-2013, CL 4-2812, 283-6421 or VE 7-2491.

Floral Design Show Planned

The Art of Floral Design will be displayed and demonstrated at the San Francisco Hall of Flowers in Golden Gate Park October 15.

Twenty or more artist-members of the Flower Arrangers of Northern California will exhibit and live demonstrations will be presented hourly throughout the day.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Milton Bell of Walnut Creek, YE 4-6046. Besides demonstrations and exhibits by Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Frederick of Danville will also design and lecture.

Reservation chairmen are: Mrs. Clifford Egan of Walnut Creek, YE 5-0438; Mrs. T. J. Walsh of Concord and Mrs. Rupert Lorenzo of Martinez.

Mrs. David S. Tittle of Walnut Creek is Muir Branch chairman.

Viola Murphy, Ray Dunley Wed in Reno

Viola Elizabeth Murphy of Walnut Creek was married to Raymond A. Duley of San Francisco September 9 in the Methodist Church in Reno, Nevada.

Viola is the daughter of Mrs. Virginia Goehring of San Leandro. Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duley of Great Falls, Montana.

Duley is vice-president of Crocker Anglo Bank at the Van Ness branch in San Francisco.

The new Mrs. Duley works at the Market branch, San Francisco, of P. G. and E.

Viola was attended by Mrs. Alberta Barelli of Reno, Nevada. Ray was attended by Tony Barelli of the same city.

The newlyweds are presently at home in Walnut Creek after a honeymoon in Reno.

Rings were exchanged by both bride and groom. The bride was dressed in an ivory brocade sheath and coat ensemble with matching accessories. She carried pink roses.

A widow, the new Mrs. Duley has two daughters, Kathy and Yvonne, by her previous marriage. Duley has a daughter, Carol, by a previous marriage.

Walnut Branch Announces Fall Dinner Dance

Hill-Hamilton Ceremony in Walnut Creek

Moraga is the new home of Thomas Lee Hill and his bride, the former Bonnie Alice Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bruce Hamilton of Rheem Boulevard, Moraga. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hill of Orinda.

Dr. Ronald T. White officiated at the recent candlelight ceremony in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

Bonnie's gown was of white silk peau de soie with the front bodice of alencon lace, styled with a very full skirt extended to form a chapel train. A Dior rose held her silk illusion veil and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

In blue chiffon with a nosegay of pink and yellow rosebuds was her maid of honor, Dee Hough. Bridesmaids were her cousins from Palo Alto, Susan and Erin Wiley. They wore turquoise silk peau de soie gowns and carried nosegays of pink rosebuds. The flower girl was Karen Rosenblatt, dressed in yellow, and she carried a nosegay of pink and yellow rosebuds.

Best man duties were performed by Tom's brother, James Hill. Ushers were James Campbell, cousin of the groom, and Bob Pothier.

Guests were received in the church parlor. Mrs. Hamilton wore a shrimp silk organza full-skirted dress, and the benedict's mother wore beige chiffon.

Double Ring Rites Unite B. C. Fallentines

Rev. Carl Thomas of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church officiated at the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony which wed Ann Elisabeth Reinheimer and Bradley Christman Fallentine.

The ceremony was held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda September 2. Assisting Rev. Thomas was Rev. C. Corwin Calavan, rector of St. Stephen's.

Following the marriage rites was a reception held at the Orinda home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Reinheimer of Orinda. She attended San Francisco State College; she will continue her study in elementary education at the University of California at Los Angeles.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Fallentine of Orinda. He graduated from St. Mary's College and received his master's degree in industrial psychology from San Jose State College. He will work for System Development Corp. in Santa Monica.

For her marriage, the bride was dressed in a peau de soie and Venice lace gown with princess panel front skirt.

It featured sequins and pearls, scoop neckline, chapel train and back bow. The silk illusion veil was held by a petal cap. She carried a Bible with lily of the valley and stephanotis.

Attendants to the bride wore turquoise satin peau de soie sheaths and carried white carnations. Maid of honor was Marie Dzegar; bridesmaids were: Mrs. Maurice DeVillers and Nancy Burke.

Jane Reinheimer was flower girl. She wore turquoise organdy with lace trim; white accessories.

The bride's mother wore a peacock blue silk sheath. The mother of the groom was dressed in a beige silk ribbon dress.

Westphal, Kaul Vows Are Read

The marriage of Joan Westphal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Christian Westphal of Lafayette, to William Ebert Kaul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Kaul of Martinez, was solemnized recently in a ceremony at Orinda Community Church. Reverend Arthur Hobert officiated.

Wearing a full length gown of nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over taffeta, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. Her flowers were a cascade of white fugi chryanthemums with white net and satin.

Matron of honor, sister of the bride Mrs. Allan Macdonald, wore a ballerina length dress of green, and carried a bouquet of mint green chrysanthemums.

Attendants, also clad in mint green ballerina dresses but carrying golden chrysanthemums, were the Misses Danise Garety, Jeanne Sindahl, Judy Parker and Barbara Patterson.

The groom chose Charles Madison as best man. His ushers were: Allen Mathewson, Steve Sparling and Chris Westphal. Little Erin Macdonald, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

After the wedding, members of the wedding party and guests gathered in the garden of the Westphals, 3333 N. Lucile Lane, for the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaul will make their home in San Luis Obispo, where the groom is a student at California Polytechnical Institute. The bride is a graduate of Acalanes High School and Diablo Valley College.

Beverly Jones, Gary Hansen Exchange Vows

Amidst banks of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and tall spikes of stocks, Beverly Jones became the bride of Gary Hansen of Lafayette recently in the First United Presbyterian Church of Oakland.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Jones of Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Hansen of Lafayette are parents of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of peau de soie with a chapel train. Her bridal bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Margie Jones acted as matron of honor. Bridesmaids, in sapphire blue and carrying cascades of white carnations, were Janet Elder, Diane Hansen and Mrs. Gail Lundberg.

Jeff Waddell was ring bearer.

David Larsen of Oakland was best man. Ushers were James and Tom Jones and Ron La Rocca.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. After a wedding trip to Los Angeles and San Diego, the newlyweds will make their home in Oakland.

Yuletide Styles to Be Shown

A first glimpse of holiday styles will be shown at the Therapy Center Terrace, Newell Avenue in Walnut Creek, October 16.

Party fashions from the Mainliner in Orinda will be displayed to Terrace luncheon guests at noon and again at 1 p.m.

Gowns to fit every holiday event will be modeled by Quail Unit members, Mesdames Ralph Graham and George Bradley, both of Rheem, and Mrs. Clyde Wilson of Orinda. Mrs. Wilson will also coordinate the showing.

The holiday mood will also be featured October 20 when Miss Jean Evers of Concord will display and discuss "Deco-Cut" Christmas cards during the luncheon hour.

The Terrace is open daily except Sunday and reservama y be obtained by calling YEllowstone 5-0121.

All proceeds from the Ter race are donated to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Therapy Unit Plans Event At Terrace

Sophisticated Italian knits will be modeled by Mrs. Marguerite V. West, sponsor of the Cardinal Unit, at the Therapy Center Terrace, 1475 East Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, Monday at 12 p.m.

Mrs. West, who is the mother of Mrs. Daniel Arena, a member of the Cardinals, will display styles from Claudy's in Lafayette.

The collection, to be shown again at 1 p.m., will include cocktail dresses, wool afternoon frocks and Capri pants suitable for "at home" holiday wear.

Other members of the Cardinal Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center participating are Mrs. Ray Cassani and Mrs. James Sowden, both of Walnut Creek. The show will be coordinated by Mrs. Donald Smith of Lafayette.

October 13, unusual techniques in ceramics will be demonstrated by Francis Coult of Orinda. Luncheon guests at the Terrace will learn about the use of melted glass gems and clay molds in the making of ceramic art objects.

Both of these events will enhance the atmosphere of the Terrace, which is the most ambitious project to date, of the 17 units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Coffee is served daily, except Sunday, from 10 a.m., and luncheon, featuring homemade casseroles, salads and desserts, from noon until 2 p.m.

Reservations for luncheon may be obtained by calling YE 5-0121.

Alamo Club to Sell Rummage

Alamo Women's Club will hold their fall rummage sale Thursday and Friday from 9 to 5 p.m. in the club building, Danville Highway. Clothing for the entire family, jewelry, bric-a-brac and household articles will be on sale.

Booth Plans Are Made By Tau Nus

The first regular meeting of Tau Nu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held at the home of Mrs. Garth Duncan in Pleasant Hill with Mrs. Leonard Long as co-hostess. Mrs. Arthur Brittain presided.

Final plans were made for the sno-cone booth at the Walnut Festival by the chairman, Mrs. Emmitt Laidlaw. Proceeds will help the chapter to support its many charities.

Special guests were transferees; Mrs. David Thomas from Bedford, Indiana; Mrs. Gene Hagen, Tucson, Arizona; and Mrs. Fred McDougall, Greeley, Colorado.

Mrs. Gene Walker gave the program, The Body Beautiful. Other members present were the Mesdames Jerry Smith, Jim Housley, Robert Massone, Charles O'Bryan, Raymond Stewart, Warren Cryer, John Evoniuk, Dale Matson, Don Williams, Don Crosby and Wally Billington.

Dental Assistants Will Plan Capping Ceremony

The Diablo Dental Assistant's Society will have their next meeting at Diablo Valley College, technical building, room 112, in the dental assisting classroom, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

This will be a meeting for the purpose of organization and beginning the new year.

Final plans for the "Capping Ceremony" of the second year class at Diablo Valley College will also be made.

A scholarship award committee of three will also select the student who will be honored for the Diablo Dental Assistant's Scholarship award.

This winner will be announced October 27 at the Capping Ceremony.

A dentist representing the Eleventh District Dental Society of Contra Costa County will be guest speaker for the evening.

Helping the Diablo Dental Assistant's Society with the plans, refreshments and program will be students from the first year class in dental assisting.

This function will take place in the Diablo Room, Student's Activity Building, October 27 at 8 p.m. Dental personnel and friends of the students to be capped are cordially invited to attend.

Dues are now payable for membership in the local component society and should be paid no later than October to have full benefits of membership.

Dues are now $30 and include membership for Diablo Dental Assistant's Society, Northern California Dental Assistant's Association, American Dental Assistant's Association and registration fee for the annual state meeting and convention in April.

Mothers Invited To Discussion

An informal tea for mentally retarded babies and their mothers will be held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Walker of Orinda, Monday at 1 p.m. Any mother or relative who takes care of the baby is cordially invited.

Individual problems and experiences will be discussed among the mothers. General information on books, articles and special schools will be available.

College Park, Pleasant Hill Open League Play Tonight

Rams Underdogs Tonight; CP Picked to Lose 1st

With most of the Foohill teams taking a week off in preparation for their league openers, attention is focused on the Contra Costa division of the DVAL.

The Sun's staff of experts pick Pleasant Hill and College Park to lose their league openers.

The four writers were divided on the Pleasant Hill-Antioch game, but the point spread was 9-8 for Antioch.

For the undefeated Falcons there was no such confidence. Everyone picks Mt. Diablo to win easily.

Miramonte, undefeated in two tries this year, is picked to lose its first to Vallejo.

Del Valle is everyone's choice to wind up the first half of its initial varsity season with a win this afternoon over San Rafael Military Academy.

IN JUNIOR college action, Diablo Valley is picked to win its Coast Conference opener over Foothill College.

The Big Ten is expected to win its three battles with the members of the West Coast's Big Five this weekend. California is also expected to lose.

The 49ers, fresh from their fabulous win over the Lions, are expected to give Bob Waterfield and his Rams a hard time this Sunday, winning handily.

Last week, the Sun's staff of expert prognosticators were paced by Roger Jernigan, who had eight of 10 choices correct.

It was a brilliant recovery for Jernigan, who was 3-7 the week before.

He was the only one who picked San Francisco to defeat the Lions.

He stumbled on the Clayton Valley tie and Stanford's win—as did everyone.

The consensus was 7-3 last week. The experts failed to foresee the Las Lomas-Clayton Valley tie, the Oregon State loss to Stanford and the 49ers' big win.

FOR THE first three weeks, the sports staff has an 80-43 mark. Last week was their best. The "fearless foursome" had a 28-13 record.

For the third consecutive week, Sports Editor George Colburn clicked on his "wild card" pick. Last week he picked the lightly regarded St. Louis Cardinals to knock off the defending NFL champion Philadelphia Eagles, 28-27. The score was 30-27 in favor of the Cardinals.

In previous weeks, Colburn picked the Lions to upend the Western Division champion Green Bay Packers and the Baltimore Colts.

This week he picks the stumbling Chicago Bears and George Halas to continue their mastery over the Lions, by handing the Detroiters their second consecutive defeat, 24-10.

THE CONSENSUS (19-11) picks for the top 10 high school, college and professional games this week are:

Vallejo over Miramonte (3-1). The Matadors' win streak ends at five.

Del Valle over San Rafael Military Academy (4-0). The Trojans win again.

Antioch over Pleasant Hill (2-2). Rams are a one-point underdog.

Mt. Diablo over College Park (4-0). The Falcons' honeymoon is over.

DVC over Foothill College (4-0). The Vikings continue to impress.

Michigan State over Stanford (4-0). A Rose Bowl preview?

Missouri over California (4-0). The Bears could make it close.

Iowa over USC (4-0). The Hawkeyes look like the class of the Big Ten.

Ohio State over UCLA (4-0). Look for an upset.

Forty-niners over Rams (4-0). The Old Red Head has too many tricks.

COLBURN (23-10) — Vallejo over Miramonte, 14-13; Del Valle over San Rafael Military Academy, 20-12; Pleasant Hill over Antioch, 20-19; Mt. Diablo over College Park, 28-13; DVC over Foothill College, 20-6; Michigan State over Stanford, 10-6; Missouri over California, 14-0; Iowa over USC, 28-17; Ohio State over UCLA, 20-7; 49ers over Rams, 31-17.

HANCOCK (21-9) — Vallejo over Miramonte, 13-6; Del Valle over San Rafael Military Academy, 20-6; Antioch over Pleasant Hill, 14-6; Mt. Diablo over College Park, 21-6; DVC over Foothill College, 21-7; Michigan State over Stanford, 20-13; Missouri over California, 13-7; Iowa over USC, 21-14; Ohio State over UCLA, 14-8; 49ers over Rams, 24-21.

ANDERSON (19-11) — Vallejo over Miramonte, 21-6; Del Valle over San Rafael Military Academy, 14-6; Antioch over Pleasant Hill, 13-12; Mt. Diablo over College Park, 21-7; DVC over Foothill College, 7-6; Michigan State over Stanford, 21-6; Missouri over California, 21-6; Iowa over USC, 14-8; Ohio State over UCLA, 21-12; 49ers over Rams, 42-35.

JERNIGAN (17-13) — Miramonte over Vallejo, 20-17; Del Valle over San Rafael Military Academy, 21-12; Pleasant Hill over Antioch, 27-20; Mt. Diablo over College Park, 30-21; DVC over Foothill College, 21-13; Michigan State over Stanford, 24-13; Missouri over California, 24-14; Iowa over USC, 30-27; Ohio State over UCLA, 24-14; 49ers over Rams, 38-28.

Post Office Is Softball Champ--WC

The Post Office won the Walnut Creek Adult Softball League championship last Wednesday night with a come-from-behind, 6-4, victory over the Walnut Creek Youth Athletic Association (No. 2).

The WCYAA team led three different times in the game—1-0, 3-1 and 4-3 — before the Post Office broke the deadlock with a pair of runs in the bottom of the fifth inning. The winners added an insurance tally in the sixth.

George Colburn's two-run home run in the third inning had given the WCYAA its early 3-1 advantage.

Catcher-manager Les Grey of the Post Office doubled home the tieing runs in the bottom of the inning after the first two men had walked.

ANOTHER homer, this time by Don Loeser, gave the WCYAA a 4-3 lead in the fifth, but the Post Office came right back in its half of the inning with two more runs to go in front for the first time, 5-4.

A two-out double with two men on was the key blow.

Pitching his second game in 24 hours, Pete Corona limited the Post Office to three hits in a losing effort.

Dick Stanley pitched a six-hitter for the winners.

The two finalists in the post-season play-off had finished the regular season tied for first place with 5-2 records.

THE WCYAA defeated the Post Office in regular season play, 10-2.

Tuesday night WCYAA eliminated the Lions Club, 9-2, to gain the final round of the play-offs while the Post Office ousted San Miguel, 13-6.

The Lions Club won the consolation game for third place Wednesday night, defeating San Miguel, 12-8.

DVC Dumps Santa Rosa, 20-13, for Fifth Straight

Diablo Valley College takes on its first league opponent when they meet Foothill College on the Owls' new turf next Saturday night at 8 p.m.

DVC defeated Foothill last season, 14-9, but looks ahead to a tight opener this weekend.

The Viking footballers made it two for two last Friday night when they rambled over the favored Santa Rosa Bear Cubs by a score of 20-13.

This win avenged a 22-20 defeat at the hands of the Bear Cubs last year.

It was the fifth straight win for the Vikings. They won their final three games of the 1960 season.

The game got off to a slow start, as neither team could move the ball in the first quarter. Diablo Valley threatened once when they got inside Santa Rosa's 10-yard line, but the Bear Cub defense plus the aid of a penalty pushed the Vikings back to the 25-yard line. This was the only threat in the first quarter.

In the middle of the second stanza Santa Rosa was forced to punt from inside its own 10-yard line. Diablo Valley took the punt on the Bear Cubs' 31-yard line and in three plays Tom Brown went 13 yards for the score. Tom Strain kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0.

It stayed that way until the second half.

BOTH TEAMS scored in the third quarter, with the Vik eleven hitting pay dirt first.

Larry Scott intercepted a Bear Cub pass deep in his own territory and returned it to the Vik 20. With Bill Gainer doing most of the work, the Viks moved down to Santa Rosa's 21-yard line.

Pete Demos got loose and went around right end for 21 yards and the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed. The touchdown drive covered 80 yards in eight plays.

Santa Rosa came back, as they marched downfield, finally scoring on a pass from Deno Verges to Barry Black which covered 28 yards. Ray Watson kicked the extra point, making the score 13-7 in favor of the Vikings.

In the final quarter both squads scored again.

The Vikings lengthened their lead when Scott intercepted his second pass on the Bear Cubs' 22-yard line and raced all the way for the score. This time Strain's kick was good, making the score 20-7.

Santa Rosa made the final tally in the waning minutes of the contest. The scoring play was another pass, this time from Verges to Rom Beam for nine yards. The PAT attempt failed.

Mrs. Calder Is Winner at OCC Guest Tourney

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1961

College Park Wins Again-- San Ramon 13-7

College Park was forced to come from behind with two second half touchdowns to keep its unbeaten string alive, defeating San Ramon, 13-7, with a TD in the final minutes of play last Friday night.

Quarterback Loren Speck was the man of the hour for the Falcons who have now won all three starts this year.

He scored both College Park touchdowns and picked up more than half of the Falcons' 250 yards rushing.

SAN RAMON took the upper hand in the first period when Mike Nivelaz raced 70 yards on an off-tackle burst. Kit Carson added the point.

The 7-0 lead held up until the intermission, but College Park got on the scoreboard following the second half kickoff.

The first time they had the ball, the visitors moved for their first score in 10 plays, aided by a 15-yard penalty.

Speck went over for the six points from seven yards out.

Dick Larschied booted the tying point with a little more than seven minutes remaining in the third quarter.

Midway through the final quarter, the Falcons held the Wolves on downs at their own 28.

It took the Falcons 10 plays to cover the 72 yards with Speck going over from two yards out.

An Ace Scored During Women's Tourney at DCC

Priscilla Sears scored a hole-in-one during the Diablo Women's Golf Group tourney last week.

The complete results with the winner listed first and the runnerup second:

Champion Flight — Barbara Kusserow, Marylin Pavlina.

Diablo Flight—Betty Bonner, Phyllis Alexanderson.

First Flight — Jean Davis, Marian Brunkhurst.

Wolf Flight — Marie Carter, Harriet Little.

Second Flight — Anise Root, Helen Brown.

Ward Flight — Mary Wolff, Helene Robinson.

Third Flight — Clyda Hull, DeDe Anderson.

Ouch--Dons Lose Again --This Time It's 40-0

Good grief it's getting worse every week.

Acalanes, losers 27-0 and 32-0 in its first two games, lost another last Friday night, this time 40-0, to Mt. Diablo.

In two games against Foothill League teams, the Red Devils scored 81 points while giving up seven. In those two games, they established themselves the team to beat in the Contra Costa Division of the DVAL.

The Devils have picked up all the marbles in their league for the past three years.

The win Friday night was Mt. Diablo's eighth in a row since Las Lomas won a 13-12 encounter last season.

FOR THE Dons, last year FAL co-champion, it was another humiliating defeat.

As has been the case all season, there has not been one bright spot in any game for the Dons.

The Mt. Diablo game was never in doubt as the Dons could do nothing right on offense, and the defense could not contain the powerful Red Devils.

The Devils scored 13 in the first quarter, led 15-0 at the half, added six more points in the third period and turned the game into a rout in the final quarter with 19 points.

SENIOR fullback Dave Jones led the Mt. Diablo attack. He carried eight times for 132 yards and scored two touchdowns. He averaged 16.5 yards per carry as one of his touchdowns was a 95 yard gallop.

Mike Jones (no relation) also scored two touchdowns on runs of four and five yards.

Another unrelated Jones boy, Dennis, got into the scoring act when he scored a touchdown on a seven-yard sprint.

The other Mt. Diablo TD came on a 25-yard pass from Gary Johnson to Dudley Gann.

Dave Jones also was credited with a safety when he tackled a Don player in the end zone.

11 Women 'Beat The Pro' at Tilden Park

Eleven Tilden Park women golfers bettered or tied Alex Waters' 79 score in the annual "Beat the Pro" tourney last week.

Mesdames J. C. Guffy, Claude Fallehy and Harry Miller shot net 71s to top all women.

Mrs. W. L. Eadie had a 72; Mrs. R. A. Williams, 73; Mrs. Z. Bogert and Mrs. C. S. McCoty, 74s; Mrs. Joseph Cavallero, 76; Mrs. Lewis Brown, 77; Mrs. Mario Albo, 78, and Mrs. Robert Eschen, 79.

Entries are now being taken for Tilden Park Women's Regional Two-Day Tournament which will be held October 16 and 17.

The tournament is open to all women with an established handicap.

Entries close Sunday.

Falcons Meet Mt. Diablo; Rams Travel to Antioch

By GEORGE COLBURN
Sports Editor

Their non-league games behind them, Pleasant Hill and College Park open play in the tough Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic League tonight.

The Foothill Athletic League begins its private scraps next Friday.

Drawing a bye this week are Acalanes, Las Lomas and San Ramon.

Miramonte plays its last non-league encounter tonight when they travel to Vallejo in hopes of extending its 1961 win streak to three.

The Matadors have now won five in a row over the past two seasons.

Miramonte's defense, more than anything else, was impressive in the Mats' first two games.

The defense set up three touchdowns in the first game and another last week as the Matadors came from behind to win.

TONIGHT'S game against Vallejo should be a real test of Coach Bob Brook's squad.

A win or even a good showing might mean that the Orinda school will be in the thick of the FAL title chase.

Del Valle's all-junior Trojans will be looking for their fourth straight conquest tonight in San Rafael when they meet that city's military academy.

Games Today

Pleasant Hill at Antioch*, 8 p.m.
College Park at Mt. Diablo*, 8 p.m.
Miramonte at Vallejo, 8 p.m.
Del Valle at San Rafael Military Academy, 3 p.m.
(*Contra Costa Division games.)

The Trojans, who compiled a 7-1 junior varsity record last year and have given up only one touchdown this year, are eagerly anticipating the 1962 season already.

The small-school varsity schedule the Trojans are playing this year is turning out to be a terrific proving ground for Coach Jerry Bellon and his assistants.

The Del Valle team will be an eager bunch next year when they enter the Foothill League wars.

Pleasant Hill, 2-1 in non-league play, travels to Antioch tonight to meet a team that was picked to unseat Mt. Diablo as CCD champion earlier his year.

However, after opening with two lopsided shutout wins, Antioch last week dropped a 14-6 decision to Livermore, conceded by many to be weaker than usual this year.

So now there's some doubt as to Antioch's real strength. San Ramon, winless in its last two seasons, managed to tie Livermore, 7-7, three weeks ago.

PLEASANT HILL, a 7-6 loser to Las Lomas in its opener, has a good, well-balanced team.

In the last two weeks, the Rams have romped past Acalanes and Piedmont, the FAL co-champions last year, to more than make up for a dismal showing in their first game of the season.

An impressive win for either team tonight would establish the victor as "the team most likely" to unseat Mt. Diablo—if anyone can.

College Park's eager Falcons get first crack at Mt. Diablo in this year's six-game league schedule.

The Falcons are as perfect as a team can get—in non-league play.

They won their first three games, which has astonished most observers who didn't expect the new school with its first senior class to win more than one or two games all year.

The Falcons have displayed a good ground game so far and have a talented passer in quarterback Loren Speck.

If College Park gets some breaks tonight Mt. Diablo might find itself in a real battle.

But it's more than likely the Devils will chalk up their ninth win in a row without too much trouble.

Last year the Concord school posted a perfect 5-0 league record.

Led by All-Everything Tom Brown, Mt. Diablo had little trouble winning its third straight CCD tie.

The Devils' only loss last year came at the hands of Las Lomas, 13-12. Since that time, Mt. Diablo has won eight in a row, including a 41-7 revenge win over the Knights two weeks ago.

Pleasant Hill stayed in contention last season until the last game against the Red Devils. Mt. Diablo won that game, 32-20, to end the Rams' hope for a share of the title.

Clayton Valley and Pleasant Hill tied for second with 3-2 records.

THE EAGLES will be a definite threat in CCD play this season, but it's doubtful if they'll be able to unseat Mt. Diablo.

The Eagles were lucky to tie Las Lomas last week, while Mt. Diablo practically ran the Knights off the field two weeks ago.

Pacifica, Pittsburg and College Park should bring up the rear of the CCD this year.

They'll trade wins amongst each other and come up with an upset or two, but it'll be Mt. Diablo, Antioch, Clayton Valley and Pleasant Hill who'll win the most games.

For those who care, the top four teams will probably finish in the order listed above.

DVC Involved In League Shakeup

Diablo Valley College will compete in a new and probably even tougher conference, beginning in the fall of 1962, as a result of the releaguing of junior colleges which took place at the Northern California Junior College's Athletic Committee Meeting in San Francisco early this week.

According to Karl Drexel, Diablo Valley director, who served as a representative to the State Athletic Committee Meeting on Monday and Tuesday at San Francisco's Maurice Hotel, his college will play all future games in the new Bay League.

The Bay League consists of Foothill College (Los Altos), Contra Costa College, Diablo Valley College, San Jose City College, College of San Mateo, Oakland City College, City College of San Francisco and Alameda's new South County Junior College in San Leandro.

THIS means DVC will drop Hartnell College of Salinas, Monterey Peninsula College, Vallejo, Menlo and Cabrillo College of Santa Cruz who competed with DVC in the old Coast Conference schedule.

Oakland, San Francisco, Contra Costa were formerly in the Big Eight Conference.

South County JC begins its athletic program next fall.

Three other conferences—Coast, Golden Valley and Valley—were also set up at the meeting.

One of the major factors in the reshuffling of leagues was the travel problem.

The new alignments affect every junior college conference north of Fresno with major shifts involved in every loop.

Babe Zaharias Golf Tourney Opens Oct. 14

The 1961 Babe Didrikson Zaharias Memorial Golf Tournament will be held October 14-22 in Contra Costa County and throughout California, Robert A. Roos, tournament chairman, announced this week.

Contra Costa's ten golf clubs will participate in the third annual tournament held in memory of "The Babe," America's greatest woman athlete who died of cancer.

Proceeds from the benefit matches will go to support the research, life-saving education and service programs of the American Cancer Society.

The tournament bears the approval and endorsement of the Northern and Southern California Golf Associations, the National Professional Golfers' Association, the Northern and Southern Sections of the Professional Golfers' Association of America, the Ladies' Professional Golf Association and the Pacific Women Golfers' Association.

Contra Costa's tournament chairman will be announced next week, according to state chairman Roos, who is a prominent San Francisco amateur golfer.

Entry blanks for the "beat the pros" benefit tournament will be available at the Antioch City Municipal golf Course, Contra Costa Country Club, Diablo Country Club, Orinda Country Club, Mira Vista Golf and Country Club, Pittsburg Golf and Country Club, Round Hill Country Club, Walnut Hills Country Club, and at the Tilden Park Golf Club.

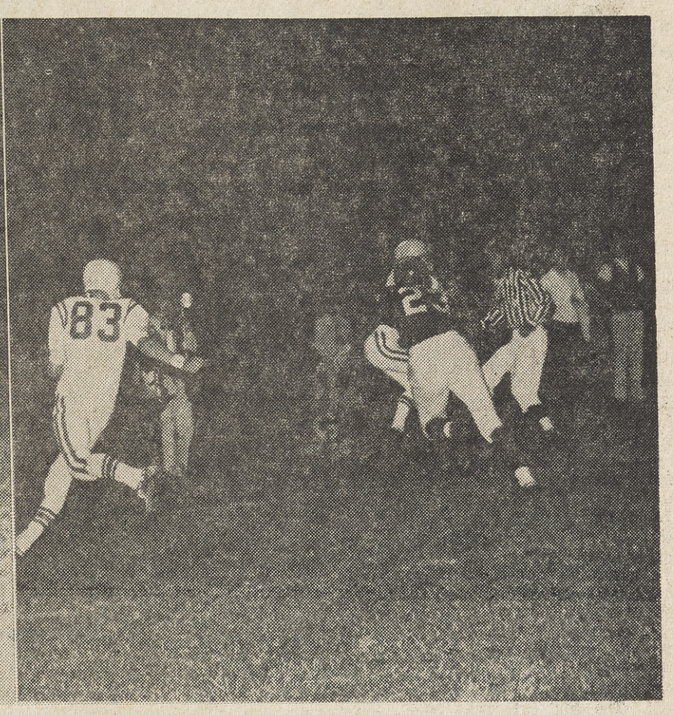
Las Lomas Battles Favored Eagles to 7-7 Tie

LARRY GABIE, Las Lomas fullback (23), was the offensive standout in last Friday night's game against Clayton Valley. He constantly ripped through the Eagle line for key yardage. Here he eludes one tackler on his way to an 11-yard pickup. Sun photos by Bob Rush.

GORD MARTINDALE was Clayton Valley's biggest offensive threat in last week's game at Las Lomas. The small (5-8, 140 pound) halfback was a hard man to catch and bring down once he got up a full head of steam. Here Martindale (29) moves away from Jim Roessler (28) on his way to a 12-yard gain. Bob Gordeman is No. 31.



THIS PLAY could have made a big difference in last Friday night's Las Lomas-Clayton Valley game. Gord Martindale (partially hidden by 23) got behind his Las Lomas defenders, but dropped a perfect pass on the five.

Mats Overwhelm Knights in CC

Miramonte cross country runners defeated Las Lomas, 15-64, last Wednesday.

Matadors Dave Dunning, Dean Monroe, Bruce Hutchinson, Phil Hicks and Rich Gallagher took the first five places in the meet for a perfect 15 points.

Las Lomas Knights' Dave Reynolds and Rick Inman placed eighth and 11th respectively as Miramonte also took the sixth and seventh places.

Miramonte's J.V. team did equally well, smashing Las Lomas, 15-70.

Three More Aces at Walnut Hills CC

John Evens, Bill Owens and Bill Spranger all scored hole-in-ones at Walnut Hills Country Club recently.

Evens scored his ace on the fourth hole September 1.

Spranger made his on the lucky seventh hole on lucky September 7. Owens made his hole-in-one on the eleventh hole September 13.

Pitt Gets the Breaks; Thunderbirds Lose, 21-0

The Pittsburg Mallards blasted the La Morinda Thunderbirds' hopes for a rags-to-riches season with a 21-0 victory Sunday afternoon at Miramonte before more than 1000 fans.

It was the first defeat for the Thunderbirds after three wins.

In their first season of operation last year, the Thunderbirds could only win one game.

This year's team gave impressions of going all the way in the East Bay Pop Warner League by winning its first two league games handily.

Pittsburg, now undefeated in three league games, has title aspirations of its own and the win over the Thunderbirds put them in the driver's seat temporarily. West Contra Costa has a 2-0 record.

THIS Sunday arternoon the Thunderbirds travel to Livermore for a 1:30 game.

They close out the season by playing three straight Sunday afternoon games at Miramonte.

Statistically the Thunderbirds were better than their rivals.

The Mallards could not pick up a first down in the second, but still led 7-0 at the intermission. Pittsburg had only two first downs in the game. The Thunderbirds had seven.

Following a scoreless first quarter, La Morinda gained possession of the ball on their own 40.

An attempted screen pass by quarterback Bill Cunningham was picked off by a Mallard lineman who ran 15 yards in the wrong direction before he reversed his field and scampered for the first touchdown of the game.

The fluke touchdown held up through a scoreless third quarter in which neither team could move the ball.

EARLY in the fourth quarter the Thunderbirds moved to the Pittsburg five, aided by a fine, 60-yard by halfback Bill Davies.

A penalty against each team moved the ball back to the seven. Davies, who was the workhorse on the drive from the Thunderbirds' 40, got the call again, but this time he fumbled as he hit into the line.

Pittsburg recovered and one play later the Thunderbirds were through.

On the first play following the fumble, a Mallard halfback swept left end, turned the corner and raced 92 yards for a touchdown.

The Mallards scored again on the last play of the game following a poor La Morinda punt to make the final score 21-0.

Despite his unfortunate fumble, Davies was easily the best offensive player on the field. He carried the ball 15 times and picked up 140 yards for a 9.3-yard average per carry.

The Thunderbirds gained 192 yards on the ground despite not being able to score. Pittsburg had 152.

Total rushing yardage was 193 for the Thunderbirds and 176 for Pittsburg.

In other East Bay games, powerful West Contra Costa won its second straight, 30-0, over Oakland, and Vallejo downed Martinez, 13-12, in a battle of winless teams.

Scoreless Tie Highlights JV Play Last Week

Las Lomas and Miramonte junior varsity teams fought to a 0-0 tie last Thursday. Las Lomas had won its first two games. It was Miramonte's opener.

Las Lomas threatened once in the third quarter when it reached Miramonte's two-yard line, but the Matador defense held. The closest that Miramonte came to paydirt was the Las Lomas 10.

Del Valle was shutout by Acalanes, 21-0, in another FAL JV game.

Halfback Tom Bevilaqua put Acalanes in the scoring column in the first quarter on a 10-yard pass reception. He also kicked the extra point.

In the third quarter fullback Allen Bartolozzi swept around left end for 12 yards and the second touchdown. Bevilaqua scored the final TD in the fourth quarter on a two-yard smash off tackle.

Acalanes had been beaten the previous week, 19-13, by Pleasant Hill.

College Park and Pleasant Hill played a practice game with their respective Frosh teams last week. Both teams were victors the week before.

San Ramon had a bye.

Las Lomas, DV Frosh Teams Win Openers

Las Lomas freshmen pounded Miramonte's frosh, 26-0, in the first game for both teams.

Mike Odell made a magnificent 85-yard run to score the Knights' first touchdown early in the first quarter. Odell converted and it was 7-0.

In the second quarter, Pete Breuleux scored on a five-yard quarterback sneak. Breuleux tossed two touchdown passes in the third period.

Mike Odell received the first for 20 yards and Rick Arnold the other for 30 yards. Mike Menesini ran the extra point. The net yardage for Las Lomas was 213 yards to Miramonte's 38.

Del Valle frosh notched its first win this year over Acalanes, 14-7.

Acalanes took advantage of a Trojan fumble in the first period and halfback Bob Garcia scored on a 25-yard run.

Del Valle roared back in the second quarter on a 17-yard jaunt by Scott Smith. Mike Mather hit pay dirt again on a blast off tackle to give Del Valle the win. Bill Main converted both times for the Trojans.

College Park and Pleasant Hill frosh played their own J.V. teams in practice games.

San Ramon opens its season next week against Alhambra.

Del Valle Is Seeking 4th Win Today

By DAVE ANDERSON

Del Valle's winning streak goes on the line this afternoon as the Trojan football team tangles with the San Rafael Military Academy on that field.

Kick-off time is at 3 p.m..

The Academy Cadets have a tough interior line according to Del Valle coach Jerry Bellon.

They average 190 pounds, and the Trojans know that it will be tough to run up the middle against them.

As a basis for speclulation, coach Bellon noted that the Cadets beat Cloverdale 26-13, while Del Valle scored only one touchdown against the same team, winning 7-0.

Del Valle had a much tougher time downing Armijo of Fairfield last week than the 20-0 score indicates.

Except for a disasterous second period for the Indians, the contest was about even from gun to gun.

Neither side was able to score or mount any offensive drive until Bob Kovats faded back early in the second quarter and threw a strike to Max Christansen, who was well on his way to complete a 65-yard touchdown pass play.

Mal Cameron bulled over the goal line for the extra point.

ABOUT a minute later, Del Valle got its hands on the ball again and this time Kovats heaved a pass which sent Bill O'Toole on a 63-yard touchdown gallop. Kovats tossed to Christiansen for the extra point.

After Armijo got the ball, Cameron promptly intercepted a pass and sprinted to a 35-yard touchdown. All of this occurred in five bedlam-filled minutes.

Except for another Del Valle touchdown called back, there was no real activity on the part of either ball club the rest of the game.

Armijo did get down to the Del Valle five-yard line, but the Trojans stiffened and held.

With the fine passing of Kovats, a weapon the Trojans hadn't used too much this year, the Trojans completed eight passes for a total of 229 yards gained in the air.

Del Valle netted only 68 yards rushing to give them a total of 297 yards gained.

The Armijo Indians didn't complete a pass but, gained 218 yards on the ground.

COACH Bellon was pleased at the Trojan passing attack, but commented that they were "fortunate to win" against Armijo's defense and ground game. He noted that the Indians were tougher "tackle for tackle" than any other team met this year.

Offensive standouts in the Trojan victory were Cameron, who fullbacked the ball for 58 of the 68 rushing yards. O'Toole, Randy Quadros, and Christiansen gave a 100 per cent effort on every play. Kovats had a very productive night at quarterback with his sharpened passing.

Defensively, Mike Valcke, Ken Roberts, Jim Pratt, and Burnell Pompenay bolstered the interior line and checked many of the Indian drives up the middle.

Late Touchdowns Give Miramonte Its Second Win

Miramonte exploded for two fourth quarter touchdowns to top Albany's stubborn Cougars, 26-13 last Friday afternoon in Orinda.

The win was the second straight for the Matadors who wound up the 1960 season with three triumphs.

The home team trailed 13-12 going in the final period.

Bob Williams put Miramonte back on top early in the last quarter with a three-yard run which climaxed a 54-yard drive to paydirt.

Fullback Dean Hilger got the final Miramonte TD on a seven-yard gallop after he set up the score with a 55-yard run. Jim Lewis added both extra points in the fourth quarter.

The Matadors got our in front 6-0 in the second quarter when Hilger scored from three yards out.

The home squad increased its lead to 12-0 early in the third quarter when Norris Widner raced 15 yards after Miramonte had intercepted an Albany aerial.

Two quick TDs by the visitors gave them a one-point lead going into the final quarter, but it was short-lived.

Horsemen Go To Stockton

Horsemen of the Diablo Valley area are competing this week in Stockton for coveted ribbons and trophies in the annual California State Horsemen's Show at the San Joaquin County Fairgrounds.

Mrs. Don Shaw of Walnut Creek is ring secretary and Ted Albro, also of Walnut Creek, is official timer.

Entered in the horsemanship classes, junior division, are: Barbara Pearce of Walnut Creek, Betsy Ann Kilbourne and Jon Sammann of Lafayette and Bill Sullivan of Danville.

Competitive events scheduled for the show, running daily through Sunday, afternoons and evenings, include gymkhana, breeding classes, hunters and jumpers, stock horse, cutting horse, and equitation and pleasure, both western and English.

Others participating include Valerie Tohill of Walnut Creek, Susan and Sari Trunk of Lafayette, Judy and Nancy Morrison, Cam Curtiss of Alamo and Lee Vinson of Danville.

Las Lomas Bounces Back; Holds CV to 7-7 Draw

By HEC HANCOCK

Underdogs by two to three touchdowns going into the game, the Las Lomas Knights pulled the biggest upset of the season thus far by battling back from a 7-0 halftime deficit to tie a heavily favored Clayton Valley team, 7-7, last Friday night at Walnut Creek.

Pummeled badly the preceding week by Mt. Diablo, the Knights showed real courage in bouncing off the deck to display some hard-nosed, hard-hitting football.

In closing out their non-league schedule, the Knights showed they will be a real threat in the FAL, which gets underway next weekend.

Providing the key to the resurgence were the Las Lomas linemen, who established dominance over the larger Eagles, thereby enabling the Knight ground attack to work effectively.

Len Haentjens, Larry Reardon, Arlis Loe and Otto Schatz deserve considerable credit for not only getting the Knight attack into gear, but in containing the explosive Eagle offense.

Perry Conner came off the injured list and gave the Knights that punch needed for those two or three tough yards.

Larry Gabie showed real speed on the wide sweeps and was the key offensive punch.

THE EAGLES, after having been frustrated on two first half drives, capitalized on a scoring opportunity in the closing seconds of the first half to go ahead in the contest.

With less than a minute remaining until intermission, Gary Ford, Eagle linbacker, picked off a wayward Knight aerial. Then with 21 seconds showing on the clock, Ford slammed in for the six points. Clyde Mashore booted the extra point.

In the third quarter, Dave Catlow recovered an Eagle bobble on the Clayton Valley fifteen.

Mike Breuleux hit Bob Nordeman on a key quick pass to move the ball to the five.

Larry Gabie then swept his own right end for the score. Breuleux then kicked the all-important extra point.

ACTUALLY, Las Lomas had the edge in the statistics. Its big edge in running more than offset the Eagle passing attack.

However, Dave Madsen, Eagle quarterback, had at least two touchdown passes dropped on him.

Las Lomas draws a bye this week, and then opens league campaign next week against Acalanes.

With the added week of work on their attack, the Knights could well be a threat for top honors in the FAL.

In fact, at this point, it would appear that Las Lomas and Miramonte were the leading aspirants.

Clayton Valley will be a definite factor in the DVAL.

However, at present, Mt. Diable appears a good bet to retain its DVAL crown.

Rheem Bridge

The Rheem Center Bridge Club, which meets every Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., at Rheem Center, announces the following scores for the past week:

Thank You!

The Sun Newspapers and the Lafayette Youth Association wish to thank the many people who donated their time and efforts on September 16 and 17 to make the community swim championships a huge success.

LYA President George Sutton has expressed his appreciation to the judges and officials who handled the races and to the general workers who helped with the many different jobs during the two-day meet at the Acalanes pool.

The meet attracted 440 swimmers from 11 local community pools.

PPK Contest Registration Ends Tuesday

Competition Will Take Place Next Saturday

Area youngsters aged 6-10 have until Tuesday to register for the Punt, Pass and Kick competition.

Registration for the contest was originally scheduled to end September 25, but contest director Don Cowherd last week announced that local boys can sign up until Tuesday at 9 p.m.

Actual competition will be held the following Saturday (October 14) at the Acalanes High School football field.

BOYS may register without charge at Lafayette Ford Sales, 3683 Mt. Diablo Blouvard from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. They must be accompaned by a parent or guardian.

Cowherd pointed out that there is no limit on the number of entrants which can be accepted.

The contest is open to all boys who have reached their sixth birthday by August 28, 1961, but have not reached their 11th birthday by November 26, 1961.

The public is invited to Acalanes High School to watch grade school boys aged 6 through 10 test their skills in punting, passin and place-kicking footballs.

ENTRANTS will receive one point for each foot the ball travels through the air, and will lose one point for each foot the ball lands on either side of a center line.

Cowherd, said each ball would be marked at the spot where it lands, and that distances immediately would be measured by the judges.

He pointed out that boys would be competing against others in their age groups only, thus preventing unequal competition.

JUDGES for the unique competition, designed to offer all boys the opportunity to take part in football activity, will be Sun Sports Editor George Colburn and Acalanes Athletic Director Erwin Mattson.

In case of ties in the competition for the first, second and third place winners in each age group, the competition will be repeated by those boys.

First prizes will be football uniforms, second prizes will be warm-up jackets and third prizes will be footballs.

In addition to winning the football uniform first prizes, the most skilled boys in each group also will be in the running for an appearance at one of the home games of the San Francisco 49-ers, when regional winners will punt, pass and kick in an elimination to determine the five national champions.

SCORES from every P. P. and K. competition in this area will be compared, and the best competitor in each group chosen for the elimination appearance at Kezar Stadium.

Cowherd said that in the case of ties between boys in this area, additional tie-breaking competions will be held to determine the regional winners.

The country has been divided into 14 regions, with each region having a National Football League team.

In each region, five winners, one for each age group, will be selected as a result of comparison of scores from all the local competitions in each region.

"We may be back at Acalanes in another week to stage a competition for one of our boys who is tied with someone in another part of the state," Cowherd said. "If so, the same procedure will be followed—he will punt, pass and kick for distance and accuracy, and his new score will be forwarded to P. P. and K. headquarters for comparison."

The five winners from the San Francisco region will compete during the halftime of the 49ers' game with the Chicago Bears on November 19 or the following week at the Minnesota Viking game.

The competition, which will culminate with the choosing of five national champions who will be given a reception at the White House and attenl the National Football League championship game with their fathers, is sponsored by the Ford Division of the Ford Motor Company, in cooperation with the National Football League.

Mrs. Danner Scores Ace at Walnut Hills

Arlene Danner scored a hole-in-one last Thursday at Walnut Hills Country Club.

She made the ace on the 143-yard fifth hole with an eight iron.

Mrs. Danner was playing with Si Sherman, Mort Blake and Paul Sosnaud. It was her first hole-in-one in 20 years of golfing.

On the front nine, Mrs. Danner shot a 31 with the help of her ace-eagle and two birdies. Her 18-hole score was 67.

Par on the front nine is 28. Par for 18 is 58.

Rams Smash Clan, 25-6

Pleasant Hill, looking better in every game, smashed visiting Piedmont, 25-6, in a non-league game last Friday night.

The previous week, the Rams knocked off Acalanes, 32-0. Acalanes and Piedmont were the Foothill League co-champions last year. The Rams are 2-1 for the year.

The Rams jumped out in front the first time they had the ball and led 19-0 before the Clan could get on the scoreboard. Once they did, the Rams promptly came back with another score.

Starting on their own 10, the Rams needed only nine plays to score in the first quarter.

Quarterback Nelson Sneiton's 33-yard scamper was the key play in the drive into Clan territory.

A SHELTON to Jim Stephenson pass was good for 25 yards and a first down on the five.

The same combination clicked for two TD passes the previous week.

A 15-yard penalty moved the ball to the 18 after fullback Tom Foster swept end for an apparent touchdown.

Piedmont couldn't capitalize on the break, however. Shelton hit halfback Dave West with a perfect pass on the next play and Pleasant Hill had six points. Shelton boot-legged the extra point.

AFTER holding the Highlanders on their 29, the Rams scored again in two plays.

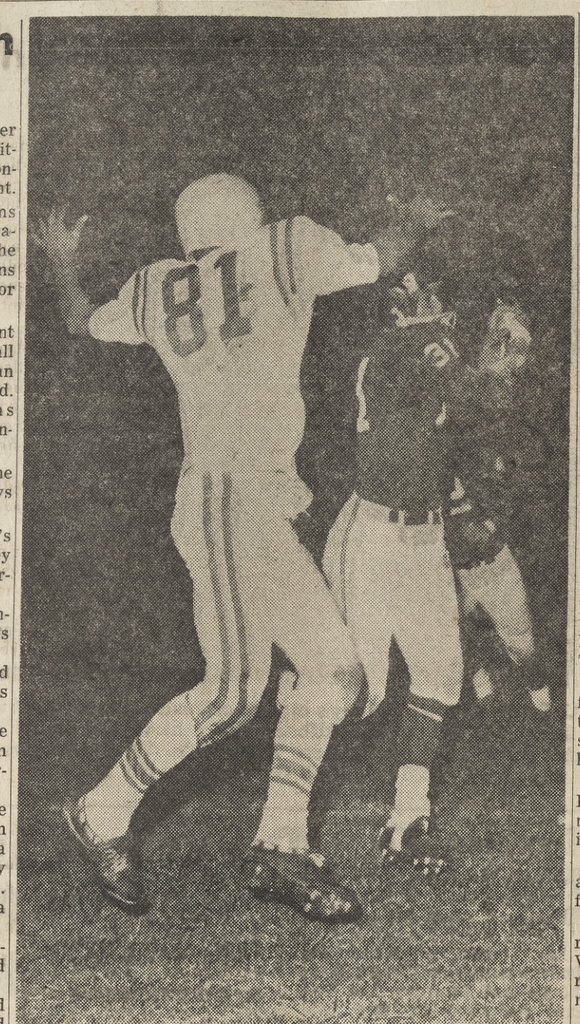
Halfback Dave Clark carried the ball both times. He gained seven then broke through right tackle and raced 63 yards to the end zone.

Piedmont handed Pleasant Hill its third TD early in the third quarter.

A West punt went to the Clan's Tommy Williamson at his own five. Williamson fumbled the ball and tackle Dave Judd fell on the ball in the end zone to put the Rams out of reach, 19-0.

Piedmont finally got moving midway through the quarter and marched 90 yards in 12 plays with quarterback Steve Hogan hitting Williamson with a 37-yard pass for the TD.

The Rams came back in just three plays. Foster got the score on an 18-yard run after Clark picked up 34 yards to put the ball on the 20.



NEXT DANCE PLEASE—Defender Bob Nordeman of Las Lomas and Clayton Valley's Bill Weldon, the intended receiver, appear to be doing a rock and roll dance number as they battle for a pass thrown by Eagle quarterback Dave Madsen. The contest ended in a draw, as neither man could grab the ball. The game ended the same way, 7-7.

Golfing Wizard-Clown to Appear at Round Hill CC

People who think they understand golf are in for a gay awakening on Sunday, October 15, at Round Hill Country Club in Alamo.

There a tall, handsome extrovert named Paul Hahn, with a grin like a sunrise, will unload his 90-pound bagfull of "magic" golf shots.

He combines the tricks with a lucid golf clinic in his one-hour show, which starts at 2 p.m.

During his performance, which he accompanies with a running commentary worthy of his good friend Bob Hope, Hahn brilliantly combines links lunacy with lucidity.

His freakish contraptions — golf sticks with swivel joints, one with a garden hose shaft, another six feet long, and one 10 pounds in weight — are designed not only to look funny but to demonstrate their master's profound message to golfers: that no matter how you horse it up, the golf swing is a basic thing.

HAHN socks balls of pegs up to a yard high, flattening his swing as necessary, but finishing always with a classic follow through. Flattening his swing even further, he splits the fairway with long wallops hit kneeling. He vividly demonstrates the principle of pivoting and balance by balancing on one foot, perched on a folding chair and cracking out shots over 230 yards.

He clips off three balls one after another as they swing before him, held together by pins on the end of a string, like a triplex pendlum.

Beaming broadly as he makes his "hard-way" shots look simple, Hahn reiterates: "Good golf is easy golf" and "Remember, golf is for fun."

Most difficult of Hahn's feats is his "double action" series.

In this, Hahn grips a mighty iron in each hand and steps up to a dozen balls teed in line. Swinging alternately forehand and backhand, he whips out 12 perfect one-handers in a cadence as graceful as a ballet. Despite his virtuosity, the Carolina-born Hahn is a modest soul.

ASKED why he stays out of tournament golf, he says, "I'm just not a competitor. I haven't got that old fire." Neverthless, he enjoys the deep respect of his fellow professionals. They consider that he does more for golf than any other practitioner.

His exhibition tours have taken him around the globe four times in recent years, to 37 countries on all six continents. At least 50,000,000 peole have seen him in movie shorts and uncounted millions more on leading TV shows like Ed Sullivan's Garry Moore's, Arthur Godfrey's with Peter Lind Hayes, Paul Winchell's, Truth or Consequences, and with Art Baker twice on "You Asked For It."

In his newest film, "Tee Marvels," he clowns opposite pretty Ann Stranahan, and the Zoomar lens proves that his quizzical show is not rigged.

Spectators will enjoy the fact that there is no walking to be done in order to catch the show, it is done from one spot. And a special attraction to camera fans is that they may photograph any or all of the one-hour show.

Afterwards, Hahn will be available for interviews.

New Golfer Scores Ace at Orinda CC

Genevieve Prlain scored a hole-in-one at Orinda Country Club recently, despite having played golf for only three months.

She aced the 15th hole with a No. 3 wood.

Rams Win Second CC Center Meet

Pleasant Hill won its second straight team victory in the third DVAL-Contra Costa Division cross country center meet of the season last Saturday.

This Saturday Pleasant Hill will host the center meet.

Unbeaten Mike Lamendola of Pittsburg covered the 2.1 mile distance in 10:47.5 on his home course last Saturday to take first place with an adjusted time of 11:17.5.

Dick Gentry of Pleasant Hill placed second with an adjusted time of 11:19.

The Rams had 32 points followed by Antioch with 58. Pittsburg had 72, Mt. Diablo, 83; College Park, 112; and Clayton Valley, 117.

Pleasant Hill also took top honors in the frosh-soph division with 35 points. Clayton Valley was second with 51 points. Pittsburg had 55, College Park, 72, and Antioch, 135.

JIM BRUCE of Pleasant Hill finished with the best time, but took seventh place after a 30-second handicap was added to his clocking.

He finished with a 12:07. Jon Lamendola of Pittsburg, running without a handicap, finished first in 12:10.1.

Pleasant Hill's Mike Martin and Gunar Liepins finished fourth and fifth respectively.

The Pleasant Hill frosh-soph reserves also won, but Clayton Valley won the junior varsity race to prevent the Rams from making a clean sweep.

THE RAMS' Andy Conroy came in third, John Hoffman, eighth, Doug Rowe, 10th and John Butler, 11th.

The complete varsity results: (time before handicap is listed in parentheses.)

1. Mike Lamendola, P, 11:17.5 (10:47.5); 2. Dick Gentry, PH, 11:19 (11:04); 3. Pat Timbrell, MD, 11:25 (11:10); 4. Ed Savage, A, 11:27 (11:12); 5. Doug Brown, PH, 11:28 (11:13).

6. Joe Curiel, A, 11:31 (11:16); 7. Bob Aguilar, PH, 11:31; 8. Pete Sturman, PH, 11:31 (11:16); 9. Gene Foster, MD, 11:35 (11:20); 10. Al Oxley, PH, 11:38.

11. Ray Sandoval, MD, 11:44 (11:29); 12. Sal Luna, P, 11:45; 13. Art Curiel, A, 11:49; 14. John Bixler, CP, 11:52; 15. Art Schanz, 11:54 (11:24).

Fall Baseball Practice OK'd At St. Mary's

An autumn practice has been approved by head coach Andy Sloan of Saint Mary's College after repeated requests by members of the 99th Phoenix baseball team.

Their requests show an optimism by those connected with the 1962 squad. All concerned feel that next season will be the best ever for the college in more than a decade. This is the school's first fall practice.

Four members of the San Francisco City Championship team, Sacred Heart High School, have enrolled at the Moraga Valley campus and have begun workouts with the 13 returning veterans of the 1961 team.

Trying out for the college nine are Rich Morosi, Ron Butori, Russ Tamony, and Norm Gazzano. Several other fine newcomers are participating in the workouts also.

The team will have a new diamond on which to play home games in 1962, and also new sleeveless style traveling uniforms for games played away from the campus.

An enlarged schedule of 34 games has been requested, and replies from other schools are now being awaited by Coach Sloan. These changes and additions reveal an increased interest on the part of the student body in baseball, and much of the conditioning and work is done on their own since Sloan also coaches the Freshman basketball team in the fall.

Having lost only two members of last year's team by graduation, and working with only three Seniors for next year, the team will be young and hustling.

Strong man of the squad seems to be Sophomore catcher Harry Laiolo who had a phenomenal Freshman year before being injured and who batter .450 this past summer in American Legion ball.

Down the Alley...

Barney Gilbert Has 255; Three 600's at Rheem

Barney Gilbert, local realtor, team captain and sponsor, blistered the Walnut Bowl maples last Tuesday night to the tune of 255.

As a result of this big game, Barney won the high handicap game of the month for men at the Walnut Bowl, and consequently will be the recipient of two tickets to the next Raider football game.

Pert Rita Lang gets our nod as female bowler of the week. Rita became the first member of the Walnut Bowl's 525 Club for Women as she bowled steady games of 179-184-187 for a 550 series in the Merrie Monday League.

Rita started the year with a 155 average and is currently carrying a healthy 166 average. Her electro way team toppled the pins for a big 840 game.

Don La Rivers, bowling in the junior majors for Rick's Piano Bar, became the first bowler of the season to bowl an all-spare game. Don totaled out at 188 after his ten spares.

Other league toppers were:

Episcopal Mixed — Bob Gartner, 224-573; Jan Gray, 449 and Norma Jensen bowled 168.

RVW Handicap — Larry Murrin bowled top series with 526. E. Lesker bowled a 204 high single.

Guys and Dolls — The Dolls took the spotlight as Marge led the Dolls with 184-488 and hubby Dick led the Guys with 204-563.

Diablo Scratchers — Stan Williams bowled 232-593.

Walnut Scratchers — Renee Ravitt led these gals with a 490 series. Andy Anderson had high single with 189.

Fourcasters — Laverne Berquist topped the ladies with 179-481. Jerry O'Dell posted high series for the men with 529, and Bob McCarthy bowled high game with 215. Jimmima Lindsey, league secretary, managed to bowl an entire game without benefit of strike or spare, for a meager 83 game.

Gutterdusters — Bob Johnson led in all categories with 227-567.

Walnettos—Pat Harris bowled high game of 163 and Nancy Virgin had high series with 455.

DV Handicap — Bob Johnson bowled high series with 539, and Bob Hartz toppled the pins for a 209 high single.

Junior Majors—Harry Thornsbury bowled steady games of 212-193-194 for high series of 599. Butch Moon bowled 598 on games of 190-206-202. R. Johnson had high game with 224.

Double Handicappers—Lee Hawes and Andy Knudsen tied for high series with 536, but Andy had the high single with 208. Ella Koessler led the ladies with a high game of 195, and Decky Sowerwine again paced the ladies wiht high series of 486.

Bowling Belles — Ruth Cox bowled 202-542.

Mixups—Chris Armstrong led the women with 192-512 and Jim Loucks led the men with 195-531.

Squarefours—Dennis O'Rourke paced the men with a 539 series, and Jim Bradley had high single with 194. Bette Bradley led the women with 178-455.

Ball and Chain—Ewald Biedenbender took high series with 546. Bjarne Olsen bowled high game of 198. Melva Schaff bowled high game for the gals with 188, but Joanne Miller took high series with 535. Joanne became the winner of two Raider football tickets by bowling the high handicap series for the month for women.

Untouchables — Al Shuler led the men with 200-512. Betty Shuler had high game for the women with 150, but Nancy Lindgren and Dolores Spears tied for high series for the gals with 394.

Payless Mixed — It was all Freeman tonight, as Howard paced the men with 197-567 and Billie led the gals with 149-411.

Best of the housewives:

Monday Madames—Lee Kane, 179-445. Kae Van Nuys bowled 179 also.

Kaiser Mavericks—Sally Holland bowled 497. Nancy Lindgren, 179.

Early Birds — Janice Knowlton, 200-488.

Junior Women's Club — Gini Venturini bowled her first 200 game, a nice 202, and finished with an even 500 series.

Wednesday Wreckers — Mel Schaff bowled 186-506.

Homemakers — Janet Burke, 182-487.

Henscratchers—Maxine Shaver bowled 635 (4 games). Renee Ravitt had high single with 221.

T.G.I.F. — Fran Phelps, 193-513.

RHEEM BOWL

In the Rheem classic league there were three 600 series Monday night.

Bill Glogovac (Glogovac Realty) led the push with a 614, taking high series for the night, along with the high game of 246.

Following a close second and third were Bill Bradbury, bowling for Rheem Bowl Galaxy Room, with a 612 made up of 223-212 and 177 games, and Bob Tank on Val Strough Chevrolet's team bowled a 611 with a high game of 993.

In the Rheemette Ladies' Scratch trio, Joan Quedens, bowling for Rheem Union team, took high game and high series for the league with a 228 game and 584 series.

Fitzpatrick Chevy Circus League — Gene Nixon, 192 and 505.

Diablo Travel League — Silas Gary, 200-587; Dale McClure, 225 and Wanda Gallagher, 212.

Hits and Misses—Pete Vacco, 213 and 515; Dawn Biegel, 172-505.

Tuesday Night Tigers — Don Hurst, 226 and Gene Jurkievicy, 536.

Spouse and Louse — Billie Colan, 199; Dusty Rhoades, 193; Carolyn Stutt, 523 and Dusty Rhoades, 551.

Rheem Valley 750 Handicap—George Stubblefield, 207 and John Richards, 541 series.

Rheemettes Housewives—Pat Newell, 518; Betty Boulware, 187.

Gutter Dusters — Bill Stirton, 183-690 and D. Freeman, 243.

Belles and Beaus — G. Whitt, 188-528 and Mrs. Warren Newfield picked up the big 4 split and will earn a patch for it.

Sundowners — Joan Quedens, 173-492 and Mary Green, 196.

Del Rey Mothers — Nancy Longacre, 154 and 410.

Morning Strikers — Barbara Ferrone, 191 and 530.

Honeymooners Mixed 4's—Buzz Knowlton, 179 and 519; Janie Knowlton, 178 and 450.

Rheem Jr. Majors — Rubin Stirton, 226; Bill Bradbury, 582.

Ball and Chain I—Henri Madeiros, 211 and 561; Bob Dunham, 246 and 614.

Ball and Chain II—V. Kronebery, 176 and 514 and Betty Benedetto, 150 and 426.

Woodpeckers — Fred Karsten, 183 and 526; Anita Karsten, 186 and 468; John Ireland, 191.

MONUMENT

Clayton Valley 750 Handicap —Techel Tractor took two points from Harley's Hardwood to retain its hold on first place. Gamma Eta Kappa and Miilu & MacPherson are tied for second place.

Don Techel of Tancredy Plumbing shot the high series of the night, 511, with games of 180, 157 and 174.

Kegler 786 League—Team #6 took three points from Team #7 to retain its hold on first place. Team #4 took three points from Team #2 and are in second place.

Ex-Acalanes Star Is Now On Fresno JV

Former Acalanes High School athlete Don Nelson is a member of Fresno State College's 1961 junior varsity football squad.

A sophomore, Nelson attended Fresno State last year, but passed up football to concentrate on baseball. He was a starting outfielder on last spring's JV baseball team.

This fall, he's battling for the No. 1 quarterback job with Tom McKeighan, former passing star for San Joaquin Memorial High School of Fresno.

Before coming to FSC, Nelson lettered in football, basketball, and baseball at Acalanes and was team MVP in both football and baseball in his senior year.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nelson, 168 Ponderosa Lane, Walnut Creek.

Fresno State's junior varsity will be composed of freshmen as well as varsity reserves and opens its schedule against the Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo) JV's in Fresno today.

The Bullpups' only Bay Area appearance will be against the San Jose State Frosh in San Jose October 13. They also play the University of California freshmen in Fresno October 28.

Your Garden

Podocarpus Pine Is A Friendly Sentinel

They call it a yew pine, and at first glance the shoe would seem to fit. But look more closely and you'll find the podocarpus is neither yew nor pine. It merely looks like a cross between the two.

There's merit aplenty in such looks, however, as the gardener who grows a yew pine will soon find out. The yew's columnar shape is there, but its strict formality is tempered by the long narrow leaves which lend the soft, informal texture of a pine tree. You get informal formality, so to speak—a friendly sentinel to place beside your door or in a tub on the deck.

TUBBING THIS pine that's not a pine is fast becoming a common practice with California gardeners. The California Association of Nurserymen reports that a high number of people who buy yew pine through member nurseries also buy a container to pot it up in.

If you follow the practice, use an acid soil mix — preferably with leaf mold liberally mixed in—and plant the young shrub at the same level it enjoyed in the nursery can.

As to exposure, the yew pine seems to prefer part shade to a full sun which is apt to burn the tender, light green new growth. It can be seen on some north-side porches where it never sees the sun — seemingly the picture of contentment. More light than such an exposure offers will probably encourage more robust plants.

THE YEW PINE'S first cousin —another podocarpus called fern pine — is taller and more treelike than the yew pine. In open ground plantings it grows some 40 feet tall—an attractive small tree with undulating foliage that bends gracefully with the slightest breeze. It, too, carries a high rating from CAN nurserymen.

There's still another member of the family worth mentioning —a close match for the columnar yew pine, but more compact and with a bit more of the yew's formality. Like the yew pine, it is suited to tubs or can be grown against a wall, so long as the wall doesn't catch full sun through the hottest hours. Ask your nurseryman for the maki yew pine. He'll know what you mean.

Pot Cineraria Plants for Portable Display

Cineraria plants may be set out from nursery flats for late winter bloom. Pot some for a portable display.

Spring bulb planting should go into high gear this month. Daffodils, tulips, hyacinths, ranunculus—plant all of them.

Choose potted chrysanthemums for display indoors as well as out.

Bait for snails and slugs. They are ever present, but needn't be if you act against them.

Plant early blooming Sasanqua camellias now for a longer camellia season.

Americanizing Suburbs—Topic For Catholics

"Americanizing the Suburbs" will be discussed at a meeting of the Catholic Interracial Council next Thursday at 8 p.m. in Santa Maria Parish Hall, Orinda.

Speaker will be Father Joseph Munier, former professor of social justice at St. Patrick's Seminary.

Father Munier is director of the Lay Apostolate and was recently appointed pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Redwood City.

Mrs. O. R. Sloan of 266 Orchard Road, Orinda, a member, said, "In many Bay Area suburbs there are few residents of minority races and consequently there exists little proximate opportunity for Catholics to work, as individuals, for the realization of racial justice.

"Many Catholics wonder if such conditions relieve them of the responsibility to help urban Negroes, Orientals, Mexicans and others overcome handicaps caused by substandard education, housing and employment."

Peace Officers' Fund Is Relayed

Sheriff Walter F. Young recently presented the County Board of Supervisors with a check in the amount of $465 which was presented to him by Attorney General Stanley Mosk. It is the county's share of the 1961 allocation from the California Peace Officers' Training Fund.

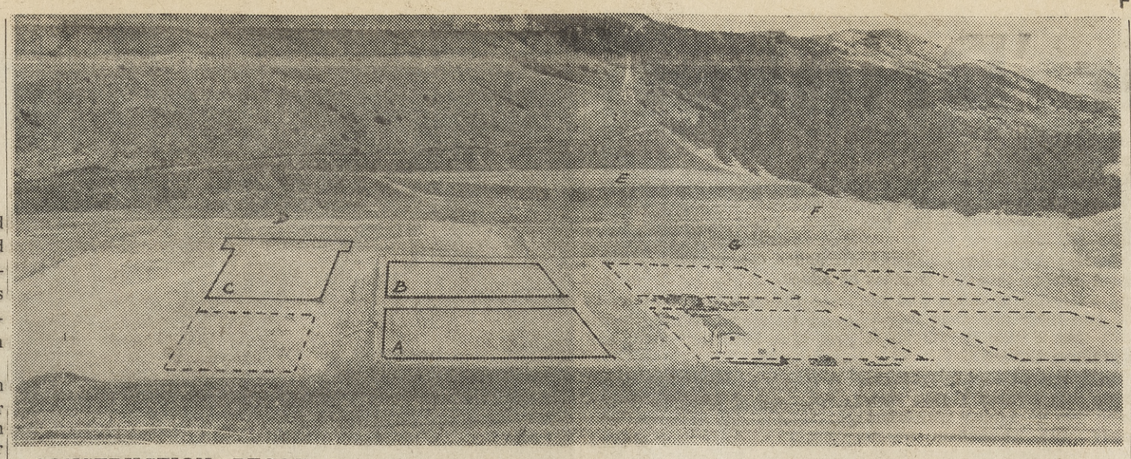
The presentation was made while Sheriff Young attended Sheriffs and Chiefs Zone Meeting held at Ukiah on September 7.

PTA Chairman Speaks to Murwood Group

Mrs. Robley Barry, state legislative chairman for the California Congress of Parent Teacher Associations, spoke at a meeting of the Murwood PTA, last night.

"Why PTA" was her topic.

Glen Max, Murwood principal, introduced the teachers and new staff members to the audience.



CONSTRUCTION BEGAN last month on the new Acalanes Union High School District school, "Campolindo," located in the Rheem area. A, B and C represent buildings to be constructed this year ready for the opening of school next September, 1962. Building A will have classrooms and offices; building B, classrooms, library and cafeteria; building C will be a gymnasium and locker facility. The dotted lines indicate future buildings: Area D, paved outdoor courts; E, football field; F, baseball field; G, parking area. The road in the foreground is Moraga Road, with the construction foreman's shack lower center photo.

'Math' Has Changed

A new program for teaching mathematics is being applied in the Acalanes Union High School District.

The S.M.S.G. (School Mathematics Study Group, Yale University), is an outgrowth of more than five years of research and development in math instruction sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

Students in the Acalanes High School District have been exposed to this new math for several years with extension of the math concept each year.

AN OUTLINE of the new approach was made in a report to the board.

It was presented by the math department chairmen of the district's four high schools—George Zunik, Miramonte; Jim Thornton, Acalanes; Paul Wilson, Del Valle; and Bob Wignot, Las Lomas.

They explained that the traditional approach to mathematics has been replaced by a new concept more in line with preparing students for the computer-missile age in which they will work and live.

"Math in itself is not changed," Wignot explained.

"Numbers are still numbers, and two and two still make four. It's the approach we're taking to teach mathematics that is changing.

"The traditional practice of showing a pupil how to work a problem and then having him do thirty problems similar to the one explained by the teacher is being replaced by instructional techniques in which the teacher and the student not only discuss how to do a problem, but more important, why the problem is reasoned out the way it is."

ZUNIK illustrated his remarks with examples from the new S.M.S.G. texts being used in conjunction with district math courses.

"The language in these texts is a new language of mathematics," Zunik explained.

"The terminology is employed to help communicate to students the basic concepts in numbers that thread through the entire study of mathematics from addition and subtraction through calculus.

"The adoption of this new comunication form will make it a little difficult for parents to do their student's math homework.

"But that's fine," Zunik explained, "because the students should be doing their own homework, anyway."

DEVELOPMENT of the S.M.S.G. math program in the Acalanes High School District will eventually run from the ninth through twelfth grade.

"The titles and sequences of courses — algebra, geometry, trigonometry, solid geometry, algebra II, etc. — will change with some courses coming in different order and others merged into special combinations.

Inclusion of S.M.S.G. in eighth grade math at the intermediate school level is helping the reorganization of the whole sec-secondary math program," they said.

Wilson said the math program is not only stimulating to the able and average student, but "from my own experience with slower math learners, it benefits them as well.

"THE NEW concept does more to stimulate student interest and curiosity than the traditional math approach has done."

Wilson observed that the slower student will cover much of the S.M.S.G. program at a pace geared to his learning abilities.

"While the faster student may push through three years of S.M.S.G. math in one or two years, the average student will do it in two years, and the less able math student in the full three.

"In addition, special S.M.S.G. math materials for the slower pupil will be out shortly to meet that student's particular needs."

ASSISTANT Superintendent of Instruction Leland Russell reported that of the 23 math teachers in the Acalanes District schools, 20 have math majors, and 14 have been attending summer institutes, after-school courses and other programs to improve their teaching effectiveness with these new concepts.

"Local high schools are fortunate to have the caliber of math instructors that we employ," Russell stated.

Many school districts across the country, and particularly in California, are adopting S.M.S.G. math approaches, Russell said.

The Acalanes District trustees also approved continued employment of readers to help teachers in district social studies courses, sanctioned a new sign for Acalanes High School, designed and paid for by the 1961-62 and 1960-61 senior classes of the Lafayette high school, and adopted a basic set of guidance principles for effecting the district's counseling and guidance program.

Postmasters Announce Yule Mailing Regulations

Area postmasters have announced that the period from November 1 to November 20 has been designated for the mailing of Christmas parcels by surface transportation to members of our Armed Forces overseas.

For airmail the period is December 1 to December 10. Greeting cards for the Armed Forces overseas should be mailed within the periods designated for parcels if they are to have a reasonable expectation of delivery prior to Christmas.

The term Armed Forces overseas includes personnel of our Armed Forces, members of their families and authorized U.S. civilians employed overseas who receive their mail through an APO, New York, N.Y., San Francisco, Calif. or Seattle, Wash., or Fleet Post Office, New York, N.Y. or San Francisco, Calif. or Navy Post Office, c/o Postmaster, Seattle, Wash.

PACKAGING: All articles should be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fibreboard or strong, double faced corrugated fibreboard.

All fibreboard boxes should be securely wrapped in heavy paper which materially strengthens the package. Each box should be well tied with strong cord. Unless completely packed and tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed. Sufficient cushioning material should be used to prevent any rattling or loosening of the articles within the package.

Postage: The domestic rates of postage are applicable, and postage must be fully prepaid. When fourth class parcel post rates are applicable, the zone rate from the post office where mailed to the post office through which the parcels are addressed will be charged.

Airmail articles weighing not in excess of eight ounces are chargeable at the rate of seven cents per ounce; those weighing over eight ounces are chargeable at the rate of 80 cents a pound.

ADDRESSING: Addresses must be legible and complete and should be prepared by typewriter or pen and ink.

A slip showing list of contents and addressee should be enclosed in the parcel.

Forms 2966 or 2976: A Customs Declaration, completed by the senders is required on parcels to some destinations.

Prohibited Articles: In addition to the articles normally prohibited in the mail, matches of all kinds and lighter fluid may not be mailed to military addresses. Cigarettes, other tobacco products, coffee and various other items are prohibited in parcels addressed to some military post offices.

Mattison Is Audubon Speaker

"Doc" Mattison, county park director, will talk to the Mt. Diablo Audubon Society Thursday at 8 p.m., in Ferd Ruth's laboratory, in the Life Sciences building of the Diablo Valley College.

He will discuss local county park problems and conservation matters.

The field trip will be in the vicinity of St. Mary's College, October 15 at 7:30 p.m. starting from Bollinger Canyon Road and St. Mary's Road.

Valley Art Center Has New Headquarters

A new headquarters for the Valley Art Center was announced this week by the center's president, Mrs. Harold Powell of Lafayette.

Sunday the art center took occupancy of the building at 978 Hough Street, just off La Fiesta Square in the heart of Lafayette. The building provides a convenient location and adequate space for the center's work of promoting appreciation of the fine arts.

For the first time the group will present at one central headquarters their art exhibitions, classes, one-man shows, and rental gallery service.

A gala opening of the art center will be announced shortly. Meanwhile a committee of art center members is busy preparing the building for artistic displays and services.

Members of the committee include: Mrs. John Ellis, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Tom Boothe, Robert Evans, William Vogt, George Thompson, Edmund Barnett, Philip Merrill, Reidulf Westlye (chairman of the art center women's board), Francis Rousseau, William Zion and Neil Falconer, all of Lafayette.

Committee members from Walnut Creek are Mesdames Peter Howard, Richard Johnston and Harold E. Butzbach. Mrs. John Metcalf of Orinda and Mrs. Frank Buck of Alamo are also members. Working with the group is Mrs. Ray Holland of Lafayette, who is representing the Children's Cooperative Art Association.

Goal: $1 Per 'Drinker'

With the goal of one dollar for each problem drinker in the county, the Contra Costa Council on Alcoholism has launched its first annual fund drive.

Judge Louis J. McKannay of Concord, campaign chairman, said that "There are believed to be 10,000 problem drinkers in our county.

"And the Alcoholism Council needs $10,000 this year to fight this serious disease."

"Directly or indirectly, alcoholism touches almost everyone. Figures indicate that one in 40 persons is an alcoholic, and problem drinking is everybody's business," McKannay said.

There is a great drain on public funds caused by crime, accidents, and broken homes as an outgrowth of alcoholism. "The cost to you and me as taxpayers is tremendous," he said.

McKannay called problem drinking "industry's billion dollar headache." Three of every 100 employees, two million workers in the nation, are estimated to be alcoholics. The average alcoholic worker misses 22 work days a year, he said.

The belief that most alcoholics live on Skid Row was attacked by McKannay.

A small number of problem drinkers can be found in almost any large social group, office, or factory.

"Alcoholism plays no favorites, and some of the brightest and most talented people are problem drinkers," he went on. "They may not know they're headed for alcoholism, but the signs are there.

Craving drinks, blackouts, drunk driving, financial troubles and difficulty at home and on the job—these are some indications that a man or woman is a problem drinker."

Until the local alcoholism group was formed a year ago, there was no agency concerned solely with alcoholism which could mobilize a county-wide attack on this disease, McKannay continued.

"Our council has planned an ambitious program to help alcoholics and their families obtain treatment. We've already begun to educate professional persons and the public on what can be done about problem drinking," McKannay said.

With proper treatment services, an estimated 85 per cent of alcoholics can be rehabilitated, he added.

The Contra Costa Council draws its members from medicine, law, business, labor, and government.

It is neither "wet" nor "dry" on the use of alcoholic beverages, and is only concerned with problem drinking and alcoholism.

Two alcoholism information centers are operated by the council—one at 105 Astrid Drive, Pleasant Hill, and another at Macdonald Avenue, Richmond.

Therapy Center Seeks Members; Mails Used

Directors of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center announced 1961 annual membership drive requests have been mailed to 3,000 members.

Membership contributions are used to assist in the operation of the community-supported center, the only one of its kind in the United States.

Located in Pleasatnt Hill, the center provides complete rehabilitation services to the residents of Contra Costa County.

Any outpatient resident with a physician's prescription is welcomed at the center regardless of ability to pay. Through physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing therapy, psychological services, social case work, vocational counseling and a rehabilitation workshop, over 3500 residents of Contra Costa County have received services and many have been returned to the community as useful citizens.

"While we are urging renewal of membership by 'good neighbors' to support the center program, we are inviting any interested resident to join our membership rolls," said James Simonds, president of the center's board of directors.

"Membership may be obtained by sending your contribution in any amount direct to Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, 100 Golf Club Road, Pleasant Hill," he said.

Surplus Foods Being Used

Recipes especially developed for the use of surplus commodity foods in homemaking classes were distributed to homemaking teachers in Contra Costa County at their first meeting of the school year Monday at Alhambra High School, Martinez.

New federal law authorizes the issue of surplus foods for such use, according to Mrs. Mary Louise Nissen of the county superintendent's office.

Elimination of Bookmobile Stops Told

The Contra Costa County Library bookmobile operating in the central and eastern areas of the county went on a revised fall and winter schedule, beginning Tuesday.

In order to extend the mobile library service to sections in the vicinity of Oakley, Bethel Island and Knightsen, several stops in the Walnut Creek and Concord areas have been discontinued.

These include San Miguel Rancho and Tanglewood, both located near the new libraries of Walnut Creek and Concord.

THE ALAMO Plaza stop has also been discontinued.

Residents in this area are only a few minutes by car from the new San Ramon Valley and Walnut Creek libraries.

The station library in the Alamo Women's Club building is open Thursday afternoons from 1 to 5:30.

The mobile library, stocked with some 3,000 books for adults and children is staffed by a professionally trained librarian and a driver-clerk.

Mrs. Jean Groulx, Miss Sharon Hocker and Mrs. Lois Huish serve in rotation as bookmobile librarians, and Herbert Birse is driver-clerk.

THIS BOOKMOBILE is replenished daily from the 27,000-book collection in the Walnut Creek Library which draws upon the 340,000 volumes in the total county library collection.

Bookmobile schedules are revised in the spring and fall. The service is under constant reevaluation by the county library staff, according to Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian.

In selecting locations consideration is given to requests for service from individuals and organizations, provision for safe parking and electrical outlet facilities, distance from libraries, location of schools, position of major freeways, local transportation conditions and new housing areas.

The 1961-62 fall and winter schedule:

TUESDAY—Gregory Gardens, Shopping Center, Pleasant Hill, 11 to 12; Canyon Post Office, 2:30 to 3:30; Moraga, Rheem Center, 4 to 5.

Wednesday—Forest Hills, 5422 Likins, Martinez, 11 to 12; Creekside, 513 Winston Drive, Pleasant Hill, 1 to 2; Sun Terrace, Hillsborough Drive, Concord, 2:30 to 3:30; Vine Hill, Priced Rite Market, Martinez, 3:45 to 5.

Thursday has no local stops.

Luncheon for Academy Mothers

Mrs. Howard Gardner and Mrs. Vernon L. Hudelson of Orinda will attend a luncheon to be given by the Mother's Club of San Rafael Military Academy at the Mark Hopkins Hotel, San Francisco. Columnist Abigail Van Buren is guest speaker.

New Courses Are Numerous

New or accelerated courses in science, language and mathematics—a total of 108 of them in three years—have been introduced into Contra Costa County schools with funds made available by the National Defense Education Act.

The amount of $307,802 has been expended or approved for expenditure since 1958, according to Roy Andreen of the county superintendent's office.

A breakdown from the State Department of Education shows that $75,886 was expended on 26 projects in 1958-59 and $139,920 on 44 projects in 1959-60, and $93,996 was approved for expenditure on 38 projects in 1960-61.

Science projects outnumbered other subjects at all levels—22 elementary, 23 secondary and 11 junior college, for a total of 56.

Thirty-one language projects were instituted, 9 at elementary level, 20 at the secondary and 2 in the Contra Costa Junior College District.

There were 20 mathematics projects — 8 at the elementary level and 12 at secondary — and 1 science-mathematics combination at elementary level.

Applications by school districts for 1961-62 projects are still being received by the state department.

Adoption Group Reviews Some 'Problems'

Mrs. Paul Epperson of Walnut Creek presided over a meeting of the Diablo Adoption Auxiliary Wednesday in the home of Mrs. J. L. Otterstein, 229 Warwick Drive, Walnut Creek.

New members were welcomed by the group's membership chairman, Mrs. Albert Bower of Concord.

During a short business meeting, Mrs. Epperson extended an invitation for the group to attend an open house at the county adoption unit's new quarters in the old courthouse, Martinez.

Discussion was held on "Problems Relating to Adoptive Families."

Housing Tragedy

An unwritten request for more adequate housing for the elderly which ended in tragedy, was revealed recently by Gertrude H. Hall, project director of Project on Aging for the Contra Costa Community Welfare Council.

Early this month supervisor Edmund Linscheid received a letter from an elderly Pittsburg man, Samuel Senseney, who suggested a plan for low cost housing for older people.

In his reply to the letter, Linscheid expressed his interest and concern for more adequate housing for the elderly, and he urged the man to contact the community welfare council which is currently conducting a survey on housing needs of older persons.

Two days later, Senseney perished in a fire in his own home.

Linscheid said, "I hope that all older persons will make their housing needs known so that this kind of a tragedy will not be repeated."

He said housing questionnaires can be obtained at all local libraries. Further information can be obtained from the Project on Aging, 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek.

The final tabulation of the housing survey will be completed during the first week in October.

Christmas Giving Is Considered

Chairmen of the Christmas community giving program in each city of Contra Costa met September 19 at 2030 N. Main Street, Walnut Creek.

Present were Mrs. Doris Sterling, County Health Department; Mrs. Betty Simon, Social Service Department; Mrs. John Taylor, Volunteer Bureau; Mrs. Edward Keller, Inter Service Club Council, Martinez; Mrs. Louis Pitto, Mrs. William Fergus, and Mrs. F. Stark, Christmas Bureau (Walnut Creek, Danville, Lafayette and Orinda area).

Mrs. Anne Halloway, Concord Welfare Council and the Salvation Army; Leo R. Lopez, Pittsburg Schools, and Mrs. George Deeds, Community Welfare Council.

Also involved in Christmas planning are Mrs. Herman Marquardt, Antioch; Lyle Osmon, Juvenile Hall Auxiliary, and Mrs. Albert Gross, Port Chicago.

In addition to needy families with children, the various Christmas programs will care for the elderly and shut-ins.

All service clubs and employee organizations planning to give Christmas donations should contact the chairman in their area to register their gift early, said Mrs. Deeds.

Study Teacher Rating

The Merit Rating Committee of the Acalanes Education Association will begin serious studies in mid-November, according to Chet Chase, chairman and association past president.

He said that future meetings will involve "all aspects" of the subject of rating teachers and personnel, and teachers and association members may attend.

The association will adopt a policy as a result of the studies.

The association's executive board met last week and considered the time table for the studies, and dissemination of plans to all teachers in the high school district.

Case, a Las Lomas High instructor in American Problems, said there are "intricate problems" involved in merit ratings.

And there are several alternatives which will be considered for adoption as association policy, he said.

The opinions of association members and teachers will be solicited in a memo to be circulated generally.

At the "kick-off" meeting in November, resource speakers from the California Teachers Association and its local chapters, also a management consultant, will attend.

Each school in the Acalanes district will form its own committee, and will hold meetings in following months.

In January, the coordinating committee will meet and form the association's policies, said Case.

These policies will be subject to any ratifications made at a final general meeting of association members in February.

Jerry Bellon, association president, said the Merit Rating Committee was formed as a result of a resolution passed, saying, ". . . The Acalanes Education Association shall form a committee to organize and implement a study program on merit rating, which will culminate in a membership vote on merit rating policy."

The association executive board also made plans for attending the California Teachers Association committee training workshop, to be held October 10 at Glenbrook Intermediate School, Concord.

This will be preliminary to the Asilomar Conference on October 27.

Rumpelstiltskin Is for Children

Tickets are still available for the series of four plays scheduled by the East Bay Children's Theater, it was announced.

The first play will be "Rumpelstiltskin," to be held Ocober 7 at 10:30 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. at Acalanes High School.

Season tickets are $2 and may be obtained by mailing a check with self-addressed envelope to E.B.C.T., 3149 Mars Court, Lafayette, according to Mrs. Paul Brown.

Single tickets are 65 cents and may be obtained at the box office.

Henrik Blum Honored by TB Conference

Dr. Henrik L. Blum, Contra Costa County health officer, was honored recently during the ninth annual Western Tuberculosis Conference for his years of work in TB control.

The meeting was held in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The conference, assembled professional and volunteer members of Christmas Seal associations from the 13 western states.

Blum received an inscribed medallion for his "outstanding meritorious efforts in the control of tuberculosis."

Carter Sells Highland Realty

The sale of the Highland Realty Company, in Walnut Creek to Hugh F. Flynn has been announced by J. H. "Nick" Carter.

Flynn, a licensed real estate broker, has been associated with Highland for the past three years, and will assume ownership of the firm next week.

Highland Realty Company was founded in Oakland in 1929, and established in Walnut Creek in 1946. It is now located at 1252 Civic Drive, in the Civic Center Building.

Carter has owned the firm since 1951.

He, and his wife Marie, will continue as associate brokers with Highland Realty.

Flynn is a native of Auburn, and a graduate of the University of California with a B.S. in Civil Engineering.

He was active in the construction engineering field in the Los Angeles area prior to moving to Walnut Creek, and served as chairman of the construction division of the American Society of Civil Engineers in Los Angeles.

Farm Bureau Women to Meet

Contra Costa Farm Bureau Women's county officers, committee chairmen, and group leaders will meet at Farm Bureal Hall Friday at 10 a.m.

Oak Grove unit will serve luncheon and produce the program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Hinkle, chairman, and Mesdames Sands, Hubbard, Shaw, Bartz and Rieger.

Mrs. J. C. Murphy of Brentwood resigned as Contra Costa FBW chairman at the September meeting which automatically placed the vice-chairman, Mrs. Lorens Foard of Danville, in the top office.

Mrs. Foard is past secretary of the Contra Costa - Alameda Cow Belles.

She has served as 4-H chairman and commodity chairman for Contra Costa FBW.

Richard Kent Speaks at Realtor Meet

Richard Kent spoke at a breakfast meeting of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, recently at the Elks Club.

Kent is a representative of the Speakers Bureau of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

His subject was "Capital Gains and Savings on Installment Purchases."

PREVENTS RUSTING

Apply a thin coat of paste wax to metal parts and handles of hand tools used outdoors to prevent rusting and keep tools free of dirt.

STORING BRUSHES

Wrap paint brushes in stiff paper immediately after cleaning. Crease paper over at the end to maintain a sharp edge on the bristle, and tie.

HANDY HOLDER

A strip of cellophane tape, sticky side up, holds any number of parts from small assembiles that must be saved for a short time.

GETTING into the swing is Don Krampe, program secretary of the Mt. Diablo YMCA, as golf tourney time draws near. Sign-bearer is Alan Lindsey, the chapter's new program secretary.
Sun photos by Bob Rush.

A DIFFERENT kind of elbow grease is involved here. Lindsey and Krampe are working on the amphitheater behind the chapter offices at 1537 Sunnyvale Avenue, Walnut Creek. It will seat 150 persons.

GREETINGS to newcomer Lindsey, at right, come from other chapter officials, left to right, Kenneth Erskine, business manager; Krampe; John Price, executive secretary; and Mrs. Evelyn Lightbody, office secretary. Lindsey will work especially with teen-agers. He is a Concord resident.

"This is the season for good, healthy breakfasts," says Betty Crocker®, recommending these three hot cereals for flavor, nutrition and variety.

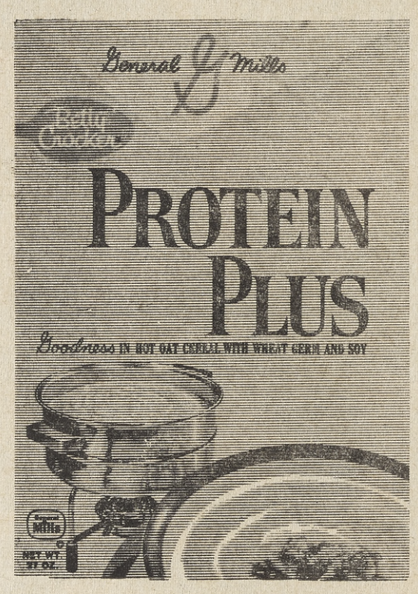
Wheat Hearts is the only leading cereal with as much as 20% wheat germ, the golden storehouse of Vitamin B_1 (thiamine). Our bodies don't store it up, so we need it every day, to fight fatigue and boost our morale. A hot, hearty bowl of Wheat Hearts is a natural way to get your morning share of Vitamin B_1. And you'll enjoy its toasted, nut-like flavor.



Protein Plus provides the extra protein which most of us need for breakfast. Proteins are the "building blocks" of our tissues and it's especially good to get plenty of protein at the start of every day. Protein Plus actually equals meat and milk as a source of high-quality protein. For flavor, Protein Plus gives you two-grain goodness of wheat and oats.

Here is a new form of 40% bran—Hot toasted 40% Bran. It's the only cereal that provides all the well-known health benefits of bran, and offers a nourishing hot breakfast at the same time. The flavor is something special, too. Hot Toasted 40% Bran has a wonderful "country kitchen" flavor, like the robust stone-ground cereals of the old days.

If you and your family already enjoy the benefits of an occasional hot cereal, you'll appreciate these three even more. Because they bring good flavor, good health and variety to your table. Try them soon.

And listen for this little jingle on Don McNeil's "Breakfast Club" and "Frank Hemingway and the News" on ABC Radio:

"You and your family  need a good, healthy breakfast to start you on your way—
And the healthier your breakfast the happier your day."

Fabulous Red Garter Band at Birthday Party!

The fabulously-successful Red Garter band, which will be featured this Friday evening during Broadway Shopping Center's birthday-cake party, got its start with the opening of the Red Garter in San Francisco, in 1958.

John S. Dupen, 29, opened his Red Garter on Broadway after making his choice between playing the banjo, which he did in college years, and structural engineering, which was his major subject.

Referring to his customers, Dupen said to a Newsweek reporter, ". . . they sing loud and long, working themselves into a fine frenzy over such old favorites as Aba Daba Honeymoon, Bye, Bye, Blackbird and Carolina in the Morning.

"If they don't know the words, they make up their own, clap their hands or pound the tables in time to the music."

Other typical tunes, Dupen explained, are Suwanee, Camptown Races, Take Me Out to the Ball Game and Hold That Tiger!

In addition to the banjos, you will hear, often as not, a piano, a tuba, a bass, even drums and bagpipes.

A musical saw has been known to whine out its own unique contribution.

Commented Time Magazine in its article about the Red Garter band, ". . . the sound of strumming has spread throughout the Bay Area . . . and no other U.S. city can feel absolutely safe . . ."

BROADWAY SHOPPING CENTER, WALNUT CREEK

OPEN MONDAY, THURSDAY & FRIDAY NIGHTS

Vote for Broadway King & Queen

SUSAN Kasper and Jim Brumback, royalty candidates from Walnut Creek School.

ANDREA Barnes and Gary Brooks, royalty candidates from Murwood School. Ted Gurney photos.

Your Vote Decides King, Queen

You, Mr. and Mrs. Resident, can vote for your Broadway king and queen, a boy and girl, each 10 years old, chosen as candidates from the area's many schools.

The honoring of the two victorious youngsters during a "coronation" will be a fitting climax for Broadway Shopping Center's 10th birthday party celebration, which begins today and runs through October 21.

How to make your choice?

Let B. K. Horne, Broadway Merchants Association chairman, explain:

"You can cast your votes for your favorite neighborhood king and queen by dropping your voting coupons into the slots under their pictures.

"Their pictures will be found with the large Broadway birthday cake in front of Lucky Store.

"The voting coupons are available at each store in Broadway. And you can place your votes anytime from Thursday, October 5, to October 20," said Horne.

Horne said entertainment will also be provided Saturday, October 21 at 2 p.m. during the crowning of the lucky boy and girl, representing one of the area schools.

And the honored school will receive a very substantial award from Broadway merchants. The king and queen will each be given a new outfit. The Walnut Creek recreation program will receive $500 cash award.

Broadway's Reputation Soars in First Decade

"Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, was the first major planned center in the East Bay and one of the first in California," said George Webster, former chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

He said, "It has been among the most successful centers in the nation.

"This is attributed to the fact that it has 54 well-known stores which offer a wide selection of merchandise.

"Its reputation has been established for offering quality merchandise at competitive prices."

Webster continued, "Among our stores are represented the nation's leading merchandisers as well as branches of famous regional firms.

"This means that if one parking area is full, the motorist will be able to find space quickly in a nearby parking area," he said.

Free Books for King and Queen's Library

A supply of library books will be contributed to the local elementary school which has as pupils the 10-year-old boys and girls to be chosen Broadway Shopping Center's king and queen.

Broadway will contribute the books to the school, will donate $500 to the Walnut Creek Recreation Department and will give each candidate an outfit of clothing.

Occasion is Broadway 10th birthday celebration which begins today and runs through October 21.

The crowning of the king and queen will be October 21. Entertainment will be provided.

Look through this edition for pictures of the candidates. They are likely to be children in your neighborhood, or those of good friends!

See the other stories in this edition telling how you can help elect them king and queen!

Shopping in Evening Is Leisurely, Cool

Stores in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, are open Monday and Friday nights for the convenience of shoppers and their families.

The late hours provide Contra Costa housewives with the opportunity to use the leisure evening hours for shopping with their families.

Many families have dinner out, and then stroll through Broadway before heading for home.

B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, said, "We have found the people are genuinely grateful for the chance to shop during the cool evening hours, when the hustle and bustle of the day is already past."

Teachers to Assist United Crusade Drive

Solicitations for this year's United Crusade in the Acalanes School District will be made through the volunteer efforts of the departments of art and home economics, said Jerry Bellon, president of the Acalanes Education Association.

Jack Howard of the Del Valle art department, and Mrs. Evelyn Bachelor of Del Valle's home economics department are chairmen.

The art and home economic teachers in each of the four high schools will form a local committee, and carry out the solicitations among the respective faculties.

A luncheon meeting is planned to begin this year's effort.

You Are Invited! Free Coffee, Cake

Everyone is invited to the Broadway Shopping Center's birthday-cake party this Friday night, October 6, from 7 to 9 in front of Lucky Store.

There will be free cake, coffee and milk.

And best of all, the famous Red Garter band of San Francisco will play. This is considered the nation's foremost banjo group.

B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, said, "Actually our Broadway birthday party will run through October 21, and for a very special reason.

"It will give Broadway visitors a chance to select a 10-year-old king and queen from their residential areas."

He continued, "But the cake and music party this Friday is itself a tradition and a high spot of the Broadway birthday observance.

"It is Broadway's way of saying thanks to the many people who visit the shopping center each year.

Outstanding Values Offered in Broadway

"Outstanding values in quality merchandise are being offered by Broadway Shopping Center stores to celebrate the tenth birthday of the center," said B. K. Horne, Broadway Merchants Association chairman.

He continued, "Our shopping center, one of the largest in California, has been preparing for this event for months.

"Through the past years, Broadway stores have earned a reputation for providing quality and style merchandise — at the very lowest prices.

"This same policy will be re-emphasized during the birthday sale, when special values will be offered by most stores in Broadway," said Horne.

"Our thousands of faithful customers know that a special sale event is really a special sale event, and that's way they keep coming back again and again.

"We've become bigger in merchandise volume and quality, in parking and in the services we offer every customer.

"Our bargains are real bargains, and our quality never drops. Quality is part of the atmosphere, here," Horne added.
